Her Diary for 1935.

Tuesday, January 1, 1935

Not a very bright New Year - Hugie is no better and Ellen has carache and Mike in bed with the gripper - he's not so sick, tho' & hard to keep in bed.
I did my chores & gave Hugie an alcohol rub & then went with Heinie to John Lorce's egg wagg party. Lots of people there & lots of egg wagg & had a good time. Left the children home after lunch. Dr. Parrish came & said Hugie has pneumonia instead of pleurisy! Poor Hugie!
He's always been afraid of it.
I gave him sponge bath when his temp. got over 104. Had supper with Heinie & then sat with Hugie who got mad at me & said the most awful things to me & that I'd go soon.

Wednesday, January 2, 1935

Worried about Hugie all night & was also upset by things he has said to me. Bathed him at 3.
Mike fine today & Henry & Ellen went to school, thank goodness.
Tried to get Hugie to use bedpan & finally helped him into bathroom.
Washed his & Mike's soiled clothes & was glad when the Dr. came & suggested a nurse.
She arrived after lunch. Miss Dugan & took charge in just the right way. Later I was able to write to Ma & to Bob to tell them about Hugie. Then sat with him. Miss Beckwith, night nurse, came at 7. She is nice, too. I sat with Hugie who is delicious - that's what was the matter last night.

Thursday, January 3, 1935

Peeked in at Hugie at 4 A.M.
When I came over from Heenie's to get Mike up. Evagene did it come - sick! Terrible time getting the children fed & off school. Ate my breakfast at 10 in Hugie's room! Dr. came & said everything fine. Helma helped me get lunch. Took Mike for a walk in the nice sunshine. Made him two pajama legs out of old ones of Hugie's.
Mike not allowed in sick room & then he cries so I have to stay with him. Dr. back at supper time - Hugie seems worse to me but Dr. says O. K.
Heenie helped me with nurse's supper. Sat with Hugie, knitting while he talked of snow on mountain tops & ~~the~~ naked

Friday, January 4, 1935

Wagon not back & the sink full of dishes! So I managed to get Ruth Hipple to come to work, after I had frantically got the children off to school. Had to show Ruth a lot, made beds & answered the telephone. so many people call up to ask how Hugie is. Gave him a dozen oranges.
& the Elks sent a big basket of flowers, but they can't be in the room as I have them in the hall & they look like a funeral. Susie Shaffer took Mike home for the afternoon so I did a big mending sitting beside a very silent Hugie. Mr. Sallow came to inquire. Dr. here at supper time, says every thing fine. Dr. here whispering for Hugie, but it came right up again! Hugie doesn't seem to care. I din with him a lot.

Saturday, January 5, 1935

Ruth came at 7:30 and things went more smoothly. I did a big washing. Miss Ingram is so nice. She washes Hugie's things. Hugie is not quite so restless today, but still delicious. In the afternoon I went in the car with Heinie & the children to deliver calendars to Hugie's.
Basket of fruit from Olive & cookies from Mrs. Shaffer when we got home - so we had tea.
Hugie is pathetic to see - thin & all eyes. He was busy in bed after supper so I sat with Heinie & read about Bruno Hauptmann being tried for the murder of the Lindbergh baby. Bed early as I am tired so would ^{think} ~~love~~

Sunday, January 6, 1935

When I got up at 4 with Niles the house was so hot I rushed to the furnace & found the draft on! I was scared. Went to early church while Ruth fed the children. When I got home I learned that Niles' temperature had dropped to normal during the night! What a relief to me, altho he doesn't seem any better. Made beds, cut Niles' hair a bit & visited with Nugsie. It is icy outdoors & cars created lots of excitement skidding on our hill. Children at Richards. Nugsie slept so I stayed downstairs with Niles & Henry & continued Ellen's slips. Niles just paid me a nice little call. Sat with Nugsie after supper until tea had time & then wrote to Ma & the aunts who are anxious.

Monday, January 7, 1935

Wagon back, thank goodness. Furnace almost out & took up a lot of my time. Nugsie decidedly better today - talks sanely now & wants to know what's been happening. Cf. church H. Sieg took me out to the Haupt's with the wash - Pete is away - he did it before. Then she took Niles home with her so I was able to sit with Nugsie. Darned & later made tea for him & myself - Miss Ingrame wouldn't join. Nugsie is beginning to take an interest in food - oh, he's so thin! Ellen & Henry helped me take the things off of the main tree. Sat with Nugsie till Miss Beckwith bathed him to sleep & then wrote in my diary.

Tuesday, January 8, 1935

Attended to my clothes and did a big washing which I didn't do yesterday - still raining today & such a job to get wash dry - with all that Miss Ingram does too. Then I sat with Hugie & finished my claming - he's getting better every day. After lunch I went with Martha to the movies to see Anna Sten & Fredrick March in "We Live Again" - very good, but sad - I have been feeling sad enough without watching more. She came in for a cup of tea & Mr. Sullow called just then & joined us. Finally I got up to Hugie, but desisted then again after supper to go to Glen's to the bridge club. Himie & I got beaten - this is bad news

Wednesday, January 9, 1935

Dark & rainy - hard to get up out of Himie's big bed in her quiet house - hard to get interested in anything too - But Hugie is getting better fast - thank you, God. After lunch I got out some old parchment to make a new shade for the blue lamp - it got broken here. I painted it tan for back ground. Had tea with Hugie & Miss Ingram - she is so nice & capable & jolly. Miss Beckwith did not have to be back again, so the same night nurse after supper. Sort of nice. Read to my patient a bit & gave him an alcohol rub. Got into my own bed!

Thursday, January 10, 1935

Hugie woke only at 12+4+ is in fine spirits today Miss Inge came as usual - she says Miss Beckwith was married on Saturday!! As soon as I had my clothes done I worked on camp shade & hated to stop to eat lunch. Told to Hugie till time to go to Reading class at Mary Craig's - genuine food. I walked down town afterward with Jo & Deborah. Wrote to Ma after supper before Miss I left - she comes later & leaves later now. Then I read the Hauptmann trial to Hugie - we both think he killed the Lindbergh baby. It's most exciting - radio reports it. Told Hugie for the night we had

Friday, January 11, 1935

Hugie slept without any dope pills. The sun is out again and the world seems much brighter. Hugie's lung is nearly healed! Did some washing & then Miss I & I went down town - got more money from Mary Beeger in the afternoon. I finished the flowers on the camp shade. Lots of children around. I ran out my aerial for radio & then I got the Marine Band on it for Hugie - he loves the bands. Martha & I went in for a second. I made a letter for Hugie & myself. Sat with him in the evening, knitting & talking about the Lindbergh trial & settling early to sleep.

Saturday, January 12, 1935

Hugie had a very good night. he is certainly on the road to recovery. When Miss Ingram came I got up & cleaned kille, drafted the furnace & then got into Ellen's bed for a little nap! Ellen was up. Peter worked on the furnace, dyed Hugo's corduroy suit again & made a pair of dark blue bloomers for Ellen. After lunch I went to D. A. R. card party mostly to see my friends again, & there sat in a stuffy corner at the bottom table with a lot of queer old women! Went down town with Heinnie & found Miss Ingram bathing children when I got home! Mrs. Scott has sent a bowl of delicious Charlotte Russe to Hugie! Several of her. Pete came in & I got him to fix

Sunday, January 13, 1935

When Miss Ingram came I hurried off to early church. After breakfast I picked coals out of ashes which Pete took out of the furnace last night! Did a big washing after that. We all ate a big dinner. Hugo's appetite is getting enormous. Heinnie took children to Reed Creek & I took a nap until nearly five! And I had a lot of work to do. Cleaned up news paper wrack etc. - Hugo's job - until the children home to supper & bed. Heinnie Miss Ingram & I had sup together and then I went upstairs to be with Hugie for a while. Heinnie shovelled snow on her side & then I went out and done up

Miss Ingram woke us all at 7:30. I had a time getting the house warmed up - picked more coals out of ashes! Washed & covered a quilt for Hilas & a pillow for myself & mended a big tear in a sheet. Miss Ingram left after lunch - her regular duty is over - thank goodness, at $5.00 a day! Mr. Kemmerman, a Kiwanian, came to see Hugie. Mike playing downstairs got a head up his nose & I had to get Dr. Parrish to come to take it out! Later Mr. Sudlow brought Hugie ice cream & stayed for tea with me. After supper I read Hugh Walpole's "Captain Nicholas" to Hugie. I started it before he was so sick & he doesn't remember a word of it.

Tuesday, January 15, 1935

Evaglan was late & we all slept & the child den were late to school! The house was like a barn & such a time I had getting it warm. Took Hugie's breakfast up & attended to him & Miss Ingram came later to give him a bath. I did the washing. In the afternoon while Hugie took a nap I wrote in last year's diary! Then Martha came & when we had tea ready we took it up to Hugie's room. She brought him some books. Betty & Stewart just came to see Hugie, they are back in town for a visit. After supper I read "Capt N" again but we were both sleepy so I gave him alcohol on his face.

Wednesday, January 16, 1935

A beautiful day. I hurried to do my chores & when Miss J. came, I went down town to pay some bills. Took Mike & we met Gen who walked with us. After lunch while Hugie naps I wrote to Ma. Gen came & after while we went up to Hugie. I made an elaborate tea & we all ate heartily. Later Dr. Parrish came & then Cat Lane with a huge cake pie! She did a good operation! I was late getting the children to bed - it's remarkable to be able to have 8 year old Ellen in bed at 6:30! But she sleeps. After supper Heinnie came over. I tore up my old nighties to make rags for the children's colds.

I have a cold & feel lousy. Fires easily & got Hugie's breakfast. Did my washing & then manicured my toenails. Miss Ingram was late getting here to give Hugie his bath. After lunch when Hugie took his nap, I tried to take one over at Heinnie's but I had to keep Mike with me & he was very noisy. Perry came to see Hugie. Then he sat in a chair by the bed - felt as if he had no legs! Dr. Hoffman came in just then & helped him back to bed before he left. He was been sick all this time. Too! Mr. Suddow came & had tea. Raleigh Cliffe dropped in & brought fruit. After supper Heinnie had bridge party - I went to it - Pete with me.

Friday, January 18, 1935

After Nurse I. gave Hugie his bath he sat in chair again. He feels stronger. I did some washing & went down town with Mike to get more money from Mary Bezn. I am having an awful time with my financial affairs nowadays. While Hugie took his nap I finally finished writing up last year's diary - from notes! Then I got Marine Band on the radio for Hugie & made him some tea which he & I enjoyed all by ourselves. Mr. Carum came in to see him after supper & later Pete brought a little radio to put beside his bed. Heine came over for a while.

Saturday, January 19, 1935

Did my chores as usual - mine & Hugie's that is. Miss Ingram came for the last time. Hugie walked to the other side of the room! Dr. Bible came to see him. I went down town with Heine & the boys. After lunch while Hugie napped I shellacked the lamp shades & dyed ever lasting flowers with crepe paper & made bouquets for Heine's & myself. Peggy Warner & Julia came & we had tea with Hugie while the children played together very nicely. After supper I sat with Hugie darning sock. Pete came in for a while with the sporting news. I am tired.

Couldn't go to church as I had to get that hungry man's breakfast to him. After I had made beds, etc. I gave him a bath. He said no wonder the children cry when I bathe them! Uncle Fred came to call after church. After dinner I wrote to Ma, Lilly Beckell & Mary & Fred. Jane was here with Ellen & Gen & Dede came for fun & I made tea for them & we had it in Hugie's room with lots of fun. Fred Warner & Stapt boy with some soup for Hugie. Pete came to take the wash out for me & Charlie Scott actually came to see Hugie. Later Heine & Dale supper with him. Dr. Parrish called and Pusoy came in lots of calls & I snilted.

Monday, January 21, 1935

Gave Hugie another bath & did a great big washing so after lunch I was ready for a nap beside Hugie, but while he was most placid he woke a string of beads & made a pile all over the floor. Got that cleaned up just before Winifred came to see Hugie, bringing a cake. I had a terrible time burning toast for tea. Winifred was very nice & gave me a suit for Henry. After supper I sat with Hugie & actually finished putting Ellen's shirt & then mended Heine's ski-pants (which I had mended) while Hugie read of the Hauptmann trial to Heine & me.

Hugie was allowed to walk to bathroom today. that eased my work a bit. I washed & ironed & cut bamp on Ellen - looks cute. Mr. Sudlow & Mr. Purnell came to see Hugie. After lunch I painted a plain lampshade for Peg Warner. Mrs. Sudlow sent a nice dessert. Mike not quite so perky today. Hugie & I had tea & cake & ice cream - nice, just the two of us. He is getting fat! After I had bathed the children & got them to bed I left to take Heinie, Glen & Cat to the college to see Katherine Hepburn in "Little Minister". I enjoyed it. Sat with Hugie to eat shredded wheat later.

Wednesday, January 23, 1935

After I had made beds & got Hugie settled in his chair & ordered the meals, etc., I began to string some of the many beads Mike has broken. After lunch while Hugie napped upstairs, I lay onavenport & Mike was good & let me sleep a bit. Then I made tea & took it upstairs. It's well I have to work hard or I'd be getting as fat as Hugie. Finished stringing beads. Went to cellar & shook lots of gin before putting children to bed, & after supper was very sleepy when Mrs. Sudlow came up to see Hugie! He bidden me, but I've been up to heat him & Heinie & run.

Had to get up & let Jack loose at 4 A.M. & took a look at the furnace as it is a bitter cold night - 25 below. Mike better than he's ever been in the morning. Had a hard struggle getting the house warm & Mike had his heels fast in the bathroom. I put things in order & rolled around with Mike. I love having him here all the time & he is getting so much better that it is a joy. But I deserted him in the afternoon & went to Grace's to the Reading Club. "Minkay" is rather hard reading - terrible names & pronouns. After supper I sat with Mike, knitching a bib for Mike & listening to downstairs radio.

Friday, January 25, 1935

Had to get up with that darn dog again. But did not have much trouble with the furnace today when I had my chores done I tried to fix Peg's lamp shade better & made a mess of it. After lunch I took a nice nap - Mike with Evagau - until time to meet the child at school to see Marionette. Show "The Lazy Princess". It was good. but Ellen got separated from us & came home crying & crying. She is such an excitable child. After supper the bridge club met here. Joe & I won. I then made fruit salad & cookies. Mary came in & joined.

Jack called me for the 3rd time! There is always a 3rd. But I have decided not to tie him up any more. I did a big wooling before lunch. Afterward I wrote to Ma & to Uncle Ed. Then Gus & Binky came to see Hugie & we had tea upstairs & laughed over Binky's book of rules on "Contact." When they left I set Hugie making "House of Trujillo" by Anne Cameron in the Post. Jane & the children playing upstairs. After supper I read more until Peggy Blanchard arrived. She & Iwan are going to spend a couple of days with Heinie. Heinie was skating so I played hostess. She came over once & again.

Sunday, January 27, 1935

Pro weather again & my usual battle with the furnace. I did some washing before going to church at eleven. Walter down town with Uncle Fred to get the paper & then he came up here to see Hugie. Mr. Parrish came & allowed Hugie to come downstairs to dinner!! My, it was nice. H. & E. went out to play & Mike & I walked on back porch in the sun with Hugie! He certainly is progressing. Later Iwan took me out with the wash. Heinie had a supper party & sent some food over to Hugie & me. Charlie came in for a while. Read the papers - lots about the sinking of the S.S. Mohawk. - by fire.

Monday, January 28, 1935

Turnace trouble again - boy.
I hope Hugie can soon run it. The children had no school today - mid year holiday. So Henry & Mike walked down town with me.
I bought a kind of corset to aid my appearance. Mary drove us home, thank goodness as Mike is so slow.
Hugie down stairs again. He & Mike took a walk - Mike is fast winning over his Dad's heart - he's no longer such a "spoiled brat". I tried to fix Peggy's lamp shade & when the "boys" came from their walk we had tea, & a nice conquered hour. After supper I mended a few clothes & then Hugie sent me at night.

Tuesday, January 29, 1935

Attended to my various morning chores and gave Jack a bath with an audience of Hugie & Mike. First time Hugie ever saw that performance.
After lunch I cut Hugie's hair after much coaxing on my part. I had a good time and really, it does not look bad by! Then he & Mike went out for their walk & Martha came in & told me they have bought the Miller house. Later Hugie & I had a big tea & Mr. Sullivan brought a Mrs. Taylor to call.
At six I took Heine into college to see "David Copperfield" which was an

Wednesday, January 30, 1935

Bitter cold weather - Hugie breakfasted in Heine's bar room as ours wasn't warm enough. After I had my washing etc done.
I took Mike down town he met Henry who joined us & on the way home picked up Ellen. After lunch I wrote to Ma while Hugie & Mike took a walk. Made tea for Hugie & me. He is getting fat. Then we had a fight about the heat of the house.
I work so hard on it but can't keep it at just a certain point. I am tired & felt like crying about Hugie & me.
After supper Heine came over. I finished 2nd bit for Mike. Tonight is 1st of Feb.

Thursday, January 31, 1935

As soon as I had beds made etc up stairs I went to the ditcher and polished silver as Swagman was washing windows. After lunch I fixed the tea things & sent
& then the girls began to come to the Reading class.
We started "Lost Horizon" by James Hilton, having abandoned "Hijinks".
I made the cuffs longer on the blouse I got from Ellen.
We had bran muffins & jellied cranberry with tea. Everyone was there except James. Peggy paid me $1.00 for fixing her shade.
After supper Hugie read me parts of "The Hobbit" & "The Silmarillion".

Friday, February 1, 1935

Sunny day so I did a lot of wash including my bedspread. And chatted with Hugie between times. After lunch he & Niles went out for a walk so I took the opportunity to take a nice little nap. Then I put the cuffs of Aunt Maud's blouse & reknit some of them.

Hugie wrote letters so I wrote to Catherine Huntington. Mary Craig came with wool for me to knit. A letter from Ellen came from her but I don't make it a little bigger - immediately. Mary was out of school this A.M. because of earache but went back this P.M. Knitted a bit to Hugie & Heenie as sup.

Saturday, February 2, 1935

Heenie and I sat in Hugie's room, mending, before he got up. Later she & I went down town at a brisk pace unhindered by children. After lunch Ellen went to Janie's, Harry & Niles played out doors, Hugie fixed his stamps and I mended by machine and then finished the blue sweater cuffs. Hugie took the boys for a walk, too and I turned the radio to the Metropolitan opera. Hugie is practically well - looks better than before he was sick - and I shall soon be rid of the furnace & everything will be fine. Hugie worked on stamps after supper - I did M.C.'s work.

Sunday, February 3, 1935

Went to early church - it is warmer today but raining. After breakfast I made beds and washed knitted things. Henry said he was cold but felt hot so I took his temperature - 103. He went to bed and after dinner the doctor came measles? I was immediately depressed - I am tired of sickness. And Mike was one holy terror - tantrums + into everything he should not be into. Ellen was good - watched her Daddy + his stamps. Dread to Henry. I was glad to get them all into bed and to eat some sup - with - Hugie + Henry. Hugie is read to me, knitting was afraid to go in to see Henry - but, no spots yet! And his temperature below normal. Ellen went to school. I did a big washing, nice sunny day. Went down town in car to get balling oil for Henry + Ellen. I don't think fat Mike needs it. After lunch Hugie went to his office! I shall miss him. Dressed a bit while Mike entertained Henry + then I went up to read to him. Hugie came home at five + wiped an egg-egg for Henry, me + himself. Henry's temperature went up to 100 this afternoon. Hugie went to meeting. I added up bills - oh, dear! and then knitted to 10:30

Tuesday, February 5, 1935

Henry seems better today - still no spots. It is snowing hard. I did some washing and datted with Hugie and joined him downstairs later.
He went to work after lunch and I took a little nap before going up to read and talk to Henry.
We played games while I knitted and I told him about the subway & waters etc in N. Y.
The temperature stayed normal. After supper Hugie started reading a new murder serial to me while I knitted.
It is still snowing.
So quiet when we got home.

Wednesday, February 6, 1935

Heinie moved over early & say Fred is in town! Henry in bed until lunch time.
After I had made the beds I went out to shovel snow - Heinie's & mine.
I had a fine time. Mike went with me. In the afternoon Hugie went to work & I knitted while Heinie & Henry played in living room. I wrote to Pa.
Late on Heinie, Hugie and Fred came in. Fred fatter than ever but all excited about going to N. Y. to work. After supper Fred came back with Uncle Fred & we had a very pleasant evening talking to them. Nightfall

Thursday, February 7, 1935

10 below zero on our porch this morning. I worked & worked over the furnace but could not get the house warm. Hugie had to stay in bed until lunchtime, Henry, too. I went down town to pay my bills - & to get warm! After lunch Evagene stayed here with Hugie & Henry while I went to Deborah's to the Reading Class. We are getting awful about talking a lot more than reading. I sat beside Gen - it was her birthday she looked so pretty. I gave the children their bath & then went with Hugie to Mrs.
Rowe's sauerkraut supper.
I read & quilted later.

Friday, February 8, 1935

Warmer today. Henry got up for breakfast, but I think I'll keep him home till Monday. I did my work as usual. After lunch Gen came with her sewing.
Hugie did some work in dining room & did not go to office. Martha came too - so I had plenty of company. We had a nice time and choc. cakes for tea! Later I bathed the children and Hugie & I rushed to the movies - got there too soon & came home for 1/2 hour! Finally we saw "David Copperfield" second time for me, but I love it. Evagene had come & toast waiting for us home.

Saturday, February 9, 1935

Hugie got in a bad humor yesterday & he still is - oh, dear, it makes me unhappy. I did my usual chores & fixed a hat to match the dress I put the beads off of.
After lunch I took my knitting & my sons over to Heine's. Ellen came here with Jane & the boys joined them later. Puss & Mrs.
Sudlow came with their sewing & we had a nice time - Jo arrived in time for the delicious tea party.
Hugie joined no, too & seemed in a much better humor. He read to me after supper while I knitted - we had been invited to Jo's - but had early &

Sunday, February 10, 1935

Soon after breakfast I discovered Henry had a fever again & put him to bed. Oh, dear - I am so sick of sick people!
I went to church down at 11 with Hugie. After dinner Hugie had to go a doctor meeting - Ellen went to Junior & Henry & I waited patiently for Dr.
Parrish. He said the fever is due to the ear which ached last night. Gave pills & many instructions.
Temperature 103. I read to Henry the rest of the afternoon. When I had them all in bed Hugie & I went to Cliff's to supper - Heine here. Shaffer & Bick & Gen there - nice.

Monday, February 11, 1935

Henry's car bothered him again during the night. He is still florid. Jack has run up during night too. I am still running furnace and I am tired. Hugie went to work at 10:30. I washed & looked after Henry. Martha brought lovely dress from Betty Wolfe for Ellen. After lunch Julie & I took a nap down stairs & Henry upstairs. And later I read to Henry while Julie practically tore the bed from apart. Glad to get them all in bed. Henry's temp. 102 today. During & after supper Hugie & I listened to the broad casts about the Hauptmann trial - it is an end & very exciting.

Tuesday, February 12, 1935

Hugie got up for breakfast so in the old days - but I had to get up, too, on account of Henry. I believe it was his car - still has from that car is all right. After lunch I sat in Henry's room fixing the brown skirt I made last fall to fit better. Made tops down to the sewing machine. Read to him when it was done. His temp. 101. After supper I left Hugie in charge & went to Grace's & the bridge club. We were all cold there as usual. Got & I had Glen & much talk of Hauptmann.

Wednesday, February 13, 1935

Henry's Comp. 99 - feel discouraged.

Realized that my clothes & gave Henry a bath & was all done when Aunt Maud came. Glad to see her. Then I walked with her & got the coal apron to take to Mrs. Harris. After lunch I went with Martha to the college to the Plantington at Janet's. It was a nice meeting, every one there.
Afterward Martha, set, for Deborah & I mailed some Valentines & then saw Aime Harding in "Enchanted April" - not too good. We had supper afterward & a merry time. Hugio had supper with Heine. Glad to see him when I got back!!
Heart of candy for me for Valentine's from Me & Dad Humpy's 100 North pair of stockings

I found another big heart of candy at the breakfast table! - & a beautiful heart made Valentine's to Mother dear. The world outside is like glass today - fun & match cars trying to go up hill. Did my washing.
& attended to Henry. After lunch Mary Craig came to take me to the club Elizabeth Walker's nice bridge party. I wrote you for refreshments & had fun with him. Home at 6 & at 6:30 Heine, Hugio & I went to Seed Coors to dinner. Red was corsage at Ladi's places. We had a very convivial time.
Bridge & I knitted.

Hauptmann convicted of murder

Hugie stayed in bed all morning to rest after his busy day yesterday. We had Henry in bed with him most of the time, looking at stamps. I got Dr. Parrish to come to see Henry again. He examined him thoroughly but could find nothing.

After lunch I sat with Henry, printing & fixing a printing thing for him to print tickets. Aunt David joined us. Later we went downstairs to tea & Helen & Aunt Gertie came in - when Mrs. Dyer came Aunt M. left! After supper I wrote to Mrs. Glen & Rich called to give me the diary book of Miss of "contact". Later Hugie 25.

Saturday, February 16, 1935

Did my chores as usual after sleeping late while Hugie slowly dressed & dressed. Ellen went off to Jane's and I attended to Hauptmann's many desires. Of lunch Hugie and I went to the college to see Eddie Cantor in "Kid Millions" - one of those elaborate successful things. We had a milk shake afterwards & thoroughly enjoyed ourselves. I read to Henry when we got back - his temp. 99. After supper the Slips came in to play bridge with us - we had high balls & later coron & sandwiches. Showed them Briet & took of.

Sunday, February 17, 1935

Woke up at 7:45 & was only a bit late for early church! Took my bath when I got home! Gave Henry a bath later and did various chores including writing up my requested diary. Then, as usual felt fine! After dinner Hugie took Ellen for a walk with him & Jack. Nabe played with Henry & I took a nap. Henry's temp. normal at last! Bliss! Aunt Maud came for a nice little visit, interrupted only by the arrival of Hugie.

Harriet & I had nine little cups together, read the papers & discussed the Hampton trial which it was

Monday, February 18, 1935

Had a busy morning trying to do a lot of work with a lot of interruptions one of them a call from Aunt M. O. P. says to keep Henry in bed and don't let him out of his room with my knitting after lunch but he needed very little entertainment as he feels so fine. He built a slip out of his bed, and Mike littered the floor with things from all over the house. After supper Hugie finished last week's installment while I knitted & unhedaily broke Katherine Seig's needle.
Then Hugie took to his stamps & I turned on radio. Heirio ^{can}

Tuesday, February 19, 1935

I did my chores as usual & later was about to get Henry up when I found his temp was 99 so he stayed in bed & I felt blue - Don't know if it must be T.B. but I can't believe it. At noon I took Gen & Ans. Sudlow in our car to the country club to a very nice luncheon & bridge put on by the golf girls. It was frightfully hot & I had jam cards & a pain but lived thru it.
 Nugie stayed with Henry so Wayne had dentist appointment. After supper Nugie read the Post serial to me while I knitted. Boys, oh boys I wish it had

Henry normal.

Wednesday, February 20, 1935

I blissfully slept till ten - same thing I've planned for two months!
 Got Henry up before lunch. He & I both tired of his being in bed.
 After lunch Gen & I showed her how to start a sweater. Then Aunt M. came with her knitting & we had tea. Those two seem to like each other. I don't know on M. Craig's I was tired when I got children to bed but they made me a cordstail. I also read to me after supper - he is sweet. He had radio on, we miss the Humphreys trial now

Henry - 99 again - damn.
Thursday, February 21, 1935

Slept late again and made arrangements for my dinner & pressed the green dress Aunt M. brought from Paris to wear tonight. Also tied up a tiny bottle of whiskey to take to Maude as tomorrow is her birthday. After lunch Hugie took me to Ma's house & got some jelly & thimble to "martha" to the Reading class. We finished "Lost Horizons" & argued about it.
And we gave the astonished Ma the new presents. I hurried the children to bed & was ready when Uncle F.
& Aunt M. came to a very nice lamb dinner. Pussy dropt in for a moment with an Acini came over. Kilted

At 5 P.M. Hugie took Henry to hospital for blood count Friday, February 22, 1935

Henry seems so fine most of the time, but doesn't look very well. He & Kulse raised the dickens while I sat in living room finishing Ma's sweater. Aunt M. came in for a little while.
Droved & blacked the sweater before lunch. So in the afternoon I had to do a great pile of washing. Cleared up the linen closet and finally got downstairs to write a letter to Ma.
It is snowing hard & after supper Hugie & I huddled there it to go to movies - Wallace Berry in "The Mighty Barnum". fair But the snow was here!

Saturday, February 23, 1935

Let Henry go out in the deep snow today - he had a gorgeous time. I did my usual chores + got my self ready for our spree. Then, after lunch, Hugie & I went to the college to see State meet which at wrestling, besides the Freshman wrestling + fencing. Then we had a cocktail in the inn + went to the corner to a nice supper + walked back to the gym to get good seats to see State meet Syracuse at boxing. I started a pair of booties for Rachel W. While we waited for the basketball game in which Carnegie Tech. beat State badly. It was quite a fiasco for State.

Sunday, February 24, 1935

Went to church at eight - Aunt M. was there too, but fortunately I didn't wear her suit! After food I was filled with energy + washed my brush + bathrobe beside the children's things. After dinner Hugie + Heinnie took Jack for a walk + all three children went out in snow. All quiet - so - Aunt Maud woke me up sometime later. We had a nice visit - I am waiting impatiently for Dr. P. to report on the blood - but he didn't come until long after Heinnie had got supper for us. He said there was nothing except a slight anemia - condition so I'd be all right.

Monday, February 25, 1935

Henry went off to school - first time in 3 weeks! I feel so relieved about him now I know there's no T.B., after I didn't see how this could be.
I did some mending, gave Jack a bath + met Henry & Ellen to go down town to buy Ellen some shoes. Hugh brought us home. After lunch I wrote to Ma & then Hilse & I went to Gen's at the Follyland where we spent a pleasant afternoon + had tea, much to Hilse's pride.
After supper Heine & I went to Purvich House to a play + "get-together". It was nice. we stop to see Aunt M. & Uncle J. later + were treated to little lasses of wine! Oh yes, the

Tuesday, February 26, 1935

A. M. much as of old - a pile of washing mostly.
After lunch I wrote in my diary, etc and later Martha came with her quilting for Rachel & I worked on the booties for same. Aunt Maud came too and seemed quite interested in Martha - we had toasted bran muffins for tea. I bathed the children + then drove to go to 'Uncle Fred's' to dinner - most delicious.
Heine went with us and after dinner we three played bridge with Aunt Maud. We all had a good time - we pivoted + it's the week now.

Wednesday, February 27, 1935

He didn't get up so very early these days. Hug & I so late this time. I had to take meals & meals ordered. Mike & I went walking to Deborah Dohlbower's to order knitting linen & to Martha's & slip & some things. After lunch I sat with a pile of mending & Deborah Valentine joined me & we had a pleasant afternoon - Aunt M. didn't come. Angie went to a Korean dinner party so I ate shredded wheat & then Helen Harper, Tina Lamb, Mrs. Sullivan Betty Lockington & Heenie came to the arrival of St. M. Field. He brought a quack for aghan. gave them tea & cake.

Thursday, February 28, 1935

At ten Deborah came for in her car & we went "loyally campaigning" for the church. We had successfully finished by 11:30 when I found Aunt M. here - quite alone as I had an hour which she gave to me! In the afternoon I went to the Reading room. He read a whole book - "Good-bye, Mr. Chips" by James Hilton. I walked up to Evagene's to get Mike as she had to come back as Angie was at the club. I ate shredded wheat again after I had the children with me. Heenie read Sahi stories to me.

Friday, March 1, 1935

March is coming in like a lamb unfortunately. I did a big washing. After lunch I got things ready for my bridge party. Aunt M. arrived first & I told her about Ma's suit of her which I have. Then Grace came & was very nice!!
Finally, Gen, & I we played bridge & I did very well with all those shacks. We had a nice tea. Swagman had Mike & Ellen & Henry were very good up in the 3rd floor. After supper I wrote to Ma. Heine came over, saying she's going to study to be a librarian.
She left later when Hugie read the Post Serial time.

Saturday, March 2, 1935

Felt sort of sick - I eat too much - but later when I went down town with Heinie I got better. I paid my bills. After lunch I sent all the children & took a little nap until Aunt M. & Miss Grace ~~with~~ arrived at Heinie's for a game of bridge. I was the fourth, but didn't hold such good hands as yesterday. The child battered me a bit, too, playing over here, altho they were good. Hugie had early supper & to college boxing. Heine ate Tomson stew here with me & we read, but Well - until I am

Sunday, March 3, 1935

Went to early church - Ellen dressed Mike for me!
It is a beautiful spring-like day. Later I did a big washing and Heine came over to talk to me. Ellen suddenly got a headache & could eat none of the nice roast beef dinner so I took her temp. & found it to be 102° - & put her to bed.
As Heine was here, I left taking Henry & Mike for walk with Aunt M. Ellen's temp 103° later so I got Dr. Hoff to come - he can't tell yet whether it's measles. Mrs Connell & Mabel Friedrichs came to supper here while Heine prepared - first - & then Pete & Jo came. Drinks.

Monday, March 4, 1935

Ellen seems all right this morning - temp. normal I kept her in bed & kept Henry from school - he & Mike went outdoors play. I did some washing etc. After lunch I took my mending & knitting to Ellen's chamber room. Henry & Mike played in the bathroom most of the time. They were all very cute & good & I quite enjoyed them.
Ellen normal all day.
The 3rd time I asked Henry to get me something he said "What do you think you are, sick in bed?" He had a resting meeting after supper & I had a lovely time reading.

Tuesday, March 5, 1935

Ellen still seems fine this morning but I didn't let Henry go to school & it's raining & he & Mike had to stay indoors. Olive came in for a moment & then Aunt M. & I was trying to stitch my new ripping nighties. After lunch I sat with Ellen, mending, till Olive came, & then Aunt M. and they run linen thread (no good) & then K. Sieg & then my crackers turned & then the telephone & then Heine & all the time, Mike & Henry I nearly went crazy. Ellen has fever & spots in mouth so Dr. H. came & put serum in H's & his families! After supper I was glad to go with Hugie & Aunt M. to college to see Shirley & Joseph in "Little Colonel" show.

Wednesday, March 6, 1935

Ellen doesn't seem to be suffering much. I went to church at 9:30 & came home to give her a bath & alcohol rub in bed. Got her all dressed up in my pink bed jacket - she looks pretty. After lunch I got Peter Saffer to come to play out with Henry & Mike & it was very peaceful indoors. Aunt M. came & sat in Ellen's room with me. She is leaving tomorrow, alas. Heine came & when Aunt M. had to go I walked home with her in the balmy air. After supper I wrote to Ma & then went to Cato's to bridge club where Grace & I had high score. It was a nice evening.

Thursday, March 7, 1935

I gave Ellen her bath & then bundled her up warmly to make the spots appear as instructed by the mothers at bridge club. Then I did a great big washing & was battered by lunch time. After lunch I tried in vain to take a nap. Peter came again to play with Henry on 3rd floor as it is raining today. So I sat with Ellen & finished & washed Rachel's boots.

Then I read to her & Peter & H came to listen, too. After supper Hugie & I went down town to see Ronald Coleman in "Clive of India" which was not quite up to my expectations. The Shallows treated us to a good afternoon.

Friday, March 8, 1935

Ellen's spots are out in all their glory. Her eyes bothered her so I tacked steamers up over the windows - then it was very dark indeed, much to Mike's pleasure.
I bathed her & then took Hugie & Henry down town with me. Hugie brought us home. After lunch I sent the boys outdoors with Peter but they soon came in & listened to my reading. Martha came four & I went downstairs & made tea for us. Ellen can't eat & feels better - two many pills. Hugie out in evening - I leaned up desk a bit & then sat with Henrie both reading. o

Saturday, March 9, 1935

Ellen slept so much during the morning that I did not bathe her. I washed some clothes & went down town with Heini - I had to get clothes for the Leuten mission box. After lunch I did my ordering, & put the bags out. Heini took Niho for a ride with Pussay & I was much relieved. I read to Ellen. Later Henry came in & listened, too. Then I discovered Henry had a temp. of 102 & spots in his mouth! He & I, too, nearly cried, but I said we must laugh, & we composed a riddle about it & asked Hugie when he came. I was grateful for the cocktail Hugie made me. He read the paper while I attended to

Sunday, March 10, 1935

As the measles seemed peaceful Hugie & I left them in charge of Niho (!) & went to early church. Ellen seems much better now that she has company! I suddenly discovered I'd forgot to order the chicken!! but Hugie went to the millman's & got one for me! He did not go to walk after dinner as it is raining but did a lot of odd jobs at home while I read & read "My Book-house" to the children. Heini had supper with us. I wrote to Ma after ward & then read the Sunday papers, and listened to the radio - Heini & Hugie!

Monday, March 11, 1935

Henry doesn't feel so well today but Ellen feels fine - so he dozed & I got out my beloved doll Mabel for her to play with. I wanted to play with it myself but I had plenty of work! I gave Henry a bath in bed, etc. I don't feel so very peppy myself. After lunch I settled my invalids & then took a nap in the living room before going up to read in the semi-darkness. After supper I had to go out in the rain to the auxiliary meeting with my mission clothes. Heine here when I got back - she was doing questionnaire from "Time" while I cut out 4 underexposed

Tuesday, March 12, 1935

Dressed up half a dozen times with Henry during the night. He is well spotted today & feeling very miserable. Ellen's ear is bothering her a bit - oh, dear. I gave her a bath in the tub & irrigated her ear. Washed, too & got tired again. After lunch - just Huh & I! - I tried to nap but men came with coal so I gave up & read mostly to Ellen as Henry dozed. Quite a noisy night as usual. Had to give Henry an enema, too. Boop! I'll be glad when every one is well. After supper I went to Martha's to nice meeting of bridge club. I played with Deborah. ^{1949 is} ~~was~~

Wednesday, March 13, 1935

Henny & Ellen both better today & Hilda still as robust as usual. I gave H. a bath in bed. I never saw so many spots! Then I washed all three children's zipper suits. After lunch I stitched by machine one pair of underwear before assuming my task of reading. Ellen deaf & I had to scream. Was glad when Hilda came with tea & later took on my job of reading. After supper I walked to Deborah Lyons for my linen thread - a pretty price this time. Then Hilda finished murder story while I worked button holes. Wrote in my diary.

Thursday, March 14, 1935

Felt awful this morning - I wonder if I can be fighting off the measles - or is it my "organs". I did as little work as possible - gave Ellen her bath today. In the afternoon I went to Winifred's & the Reading class - we started "Without my Cloak" by Kate O'Brien - very interesting about Ireland in 1840. I started the linen skirt for her to finish. Hilda was late getting home - crowd hunt & Hilda came to meet supper & then she stayed here while Hilda & I went to call on the Dr. Adamuses. Only Mrs. A. at home, but we had a nice visit with her.

Friday, March 15, 1935

Mike was very hot last night & I thought he had succumbed, but to my relief & surprise he was fine this morning. I gave Henry a bath, washed clothes & helped Ellen get dressed - but she was to stay upstairs. After lunch I stitched another pair of underwear & then made the buttonholes sitting in the "infirmary." Henry is feeling fine, but still spotty. They were all good children today. After an early supper Hugie & I went to the college to see the preliminaries of the intercollegiate boxing. He tried in vain to find the friend Fred had written about.

Saturday, March 16, 1935

I put the playroom in order for Evaglean to clean & then tied up my missionary box. Then it was lunchtime. After that Hugie & I left for the boxing again. After the afternoon fights we wandered around in the warm sun until we found Gardiner, the Yale boxer & his father & brother - Fred's friend. We took the father & brother for a ride, gave them cocktails in their room at Witham Hall! & then stayed to dinner with them & got their good seats at evening fight. Their boy was beaten - they were all very nice & we enjoyed being with them. Pete & Jo came in here later!

Sunday, March 17, 1935

Just couldn't make early church - slept till nearly 10 but managed to get to 11 o'clock service with Hugie. Then gave Henry a bath in the tub. After dinner I put Mike to bed & he was willing to sleep. He is coughing now so I guess it's measles. Alas. Jane came to play with Ellen up in 3rd floor - after I had cut Ellen's hair. I read to Henry & ran over to Heini's for a cup of tea with Betty Meese & John Miller. Martha dropped in with the suit for Mike! Flowers from the church. Hugie & I supped alone. I wrote to Ma read papers.

Monday, March 18, 1935

Mike is quite spotty this morning so I darkened the room & put Henry in my bed as he is past the dark stage. ~~He~~ I did my washing. In the afternoon Ellen put Mabel in the doll carriage & went to call on Susie Sheffer. I sat with Henry, mending Mike feverish & fretful wanting a drink every ten minutes. Gen came in & I was glad as it was an excuse for tea. After supper I stitched the last two of Henry's underwear by machine while Hugie pored over his stamps & Heini came over with her mending.

Tuesday, March 19, 1935

Let Henry get up & dressed after breakfast but he had to stay on 2nd floor. Ellen helped wagon clean downstairs & when Mike slept I took a little nap, too. I sat with him in the afternoon, mending. Henry & Ellen played nicely. Heine came with some tea later & then she played with H. & E. They were cute to watch. I had to hold Mike on my lap he got so restless & later he insisted on having a bath. which I gave him. He is not so hot today, but very messy. After supper I fell asleep on davenport & slept for 2 hours when I woke up & went to bed!

Wednesday, March 20, 1935

Allowed Ellen to go to school today as she seems all right again.
Sent telegram to Beane as I forgot to send present!
Mike better - constantly singing "I want to get up." Slept him to Eragan after lunch & sat in the sun with Henry on lower back porch until time to go to go to Reading class, when I tried to make buttonholes. But I felt awful & the house very hot. I just managed to get Henry & Ellen to bed & then went to bed myself. Hagie took my temperature after his supper - 102! He sat with me. I feel awful.

Thursday, March 21, 1935

Sweated & sweated during the night & feel better today - not getting much after all! Hugie made me stay in bed until noon & Suzanne very kindly attended to Mike's wants. After lunch Henry played outdoors & I sat with Mike who was glad & able to amuse himself. Ellen came in time to get Mike some crackers, & Heinie came & made tea for me. Hugie superintended the children's bath, altho I feel fine now - just a little okay. But after supper I went with Hugie to see Lolie Howard in "Scarlet Pimpernel" which I adored & wouldn't miss.

Ma's birthday!
Friday, March 22, 1935

I stayed in bed for breakfast again, but feel so fine I got up at 10 & did some washing. Then I dressed Mike as he seems to feel fine too. But he was willing to take a nap with me on my bed after lunch. Martha came to tea & brought a lovely taffeta dress for Ellen whom she's older - from K. Wolfe. We pinned curtains together as Mike's eyes seem red. Ma & E. playing fireman in back yard were cute. After supper Hugie & I went to church. Mr. Sayre preached then moved to Presbyterian Sample Farm & then called on the Seelows & S. res.

Saturday, March 23, 1935

Wilke & I both got up at the regular time today - I feel better now that there is no more sickness in sight. I cleaned up the accumulation of sick room trays & went down town with Heinnie looking for a blouse for Ellen to replace the one Ben gave her for Xmas which I burned on the lamp when they had measles. After lunch there was a thunder storm! Wilke & I took our nap together again & then joined H. & E. over at Heinnie's. I am knitting my pink linen blouse now. In the afternoon Hugie & I went to Pat's & Joe's for a game of bridge with them. Nice.

Sunday, March 24, 1935

The children woke early & ~~then~~ then got up - Ellen dressed Wilke - then I got up & went to early church. Later I did a big roasting. After dinner Heinnie & I went out to work in the garden & of course the children were with us. I worked steadily at mine but Heinnie took time off to fix up a little treasure hunt for H. & E. & they were cute to watch. After supper Heinnie & Hugie suddenly decided they would go to Beech Creek. I didn't care as I had the papers to read & the radio was going ^{them} ~~just~~ till. I didn't hear come.

got inspired to clean out the covered boxes in the linen closet - some of my pet junk. Mike & Henry played outdoors & I had a peaceful time. It was 12:30 before I realized it. After lunch I continued the job. Eragen took Mike & at 3:30 Huguie came for Henry & me & we picked up Ellen & went to see "Segnoia" - a movie about a woman & a deer who were friends brought up by a girl. But the children liked the animated cartoon best. After supper I left Huguie in charge & went with Heinnie to Betty Lockington's & St. Mary's Guild where we had a pleasant time sitting

Henry went back to school today and Mike seemed lost without him. I did my washing and finished cleaning my boxes. Huguie was at home to lunch as Kiwanis meets tonight. In the afternoon I put Mike out in the sun & tried to take a nap but finally joined him outside & finished mending the pillow case I started at Jo's last week. Heinnie came & we had tea & she read short stories to me while I sewed. She brought her supper over later which I ate & she shed wheat & then Eragen came & Heinnie & I went to Jo's & bridge club. Jo & I got beaten by Art &

Wednesday, March 27, 1935

After I had beds made I went to third floor & began cleaning out the camphor closet. It is a gorgeous spring day & cleaning got into my blood. After lunch Evagene joined me & we also cleaned the little guest room. Mike was quite a pest until the children came home from school & took him out with them - Hugie came to clean up the yard, too. I was getting very tired when Mike brought a reviving cup of tea up to me. After supper I legily read a continued story in the Post while Hugie wandered restlessly around. If only he would read a book too.

Thursday, March 28, 1935

Did my chores as usual & cleaned the bathroom cup board. After lunch I manicured, etc until time to go to Olive's to the Reading class. "Without my Cloak" is very absorbing. Knitted on my pink linen blouse - the pattern is beginning to look very nice. Found the children playing nicely out of doors when I got home. Put them to bed & went with Heinie to Mrs. Lane's where there was a supper for the colored church. Att with Sudlows. Hugie at country club. Went over to Heinie's & wrote up diary. Pussay ~~was~~ so I knitted & chatted.

Friday, March 29, 1935

One of those mornings when I didn't seem to get much done - a little of everything. But after lunch Evagene and I attacked the "Black Hole of Calcutta" that trunk comes in the 3rd floor where everything was stored. We were all finished by 4 o'clock so I made myself a cup of tea & put the letters on Mrs. Warfield's skirt. After supper Hugie & I went to church. The Rev. Moulton Thomas of Williamsport preached a very good sermon on modern religion & there was Bach music by a special choir. When we got home Hugie read paper to me while I ^{waited} ~~waited~~ ^{Mrs. W.}.

Saturday, March 30, 1935

Attended to my household & then Mike & I went down town, delivering Mrs. Adams coat which I blocked. After lunch I darned in the sun on the upper porch & then went over to Heinie's to greet Anna Brown who came for week-end with Heinie. I haven't seen her in 15 years. Hugie took ~~me~~ ^{me} to Cross farm to see baby animals - darling. Then I joined Heinie's tea party for Anna. After supper Martha & Jim came to play bridge - Martha & I almost ~~lost~~ ^{lost} them - most exciting. We had highballs and I fully enjoyed the evening.

went to early church.
After breakfast I got to work on a pile of mending, defeating it.
Anna & Heine came & what I considered a very good dinner. Then I got just too sleepy for words & went upstairs for a 2 hour nap! When I got awake I was just in time to take a walk in the rain with Heine, Ann & Puss. Hugie, home doing odd jobs, watched the children. Anna came over while I put them to bed then we all had supper here & sat about knitting & listening to the radio.
Like Anna nowadays.

Monday, April 1, 1935

Anna left before I had my breakfast. Attended to my household duties as usual. At lunch time I tried to fool the children with rubber candy but the only one I fooled was Mike.
Later Olive came with her sewing & brought little Billy Seig to play with Mike - they were very cute.
And Glen joined us at tea time - all hearty eaters so we fully enjoyed the tea. After supper Hugie had a vesting meeting and I lazily read the Sunday papers - there is talk of war in Europe - I do hope America will have sense to keep out of it.

Tuesday, April 2, 1935

When my chores were done I went downtown to order silk to knit myself a scarf like Anna B's. After lunch I started Mrs. Winfield's white linen blouse after hurriedly giving Jack a bath. Martha came and we had our usual friendly visit. Heinie came before we finished tea & later Hugie came with paints & painting caps & what not for our job in the bathroom. Martha said she wished John were like Hugie - I should think she might. After supper he & I got to work painting walls & wood work - at 12 the first coat not quite done. O

Wednesday, April 3, 1935

As soon as I had the beds made I picked up my paint brush & attacked the bathroom once more. Mary Craig came to see her new sweater & didn't like it - so after lunch I re-paint it with a different pattern until 3 o'clock when I again wielded the paint brush. Hugie soon joined me. Mike went out doors with H. & E. When they came home, thank goodness - as he's no fun around fresh paint. I gave the children their baths in Heinie's tub. After supper Hugie & I got to work again & nearly finished second coat - then ^{had a} ~~the~~ night.

Thursday, April 4, 1935

Again I painted as soon as I had my household settled but after lunch I took a nap as Hughie was here with Jim Williams patching the linoleum in the bathroom - all the plumbing on the back porch. At two Hughie kindly woke me & I rushed down to Gen's to the Reading club. Mary Craig tested the pattern this time so I continued with it. After supper Hughie & I painted again until he had to go to a Kiwanis Directors' affair so I took a vacation too & Heini & I sat on davenport & read & talked about how to raise children.

Friday, April 5, 1935

The boy came back to finish the linoleum & also to fix it in the kitchen which made difficulties for Eva-gean - we had no water either. I did a little washing over at Heini's. After lunch the plumber came to put back the plumbing & finally at 3 Hughie got to his office. Eva-gean & I meanwhile had gone to 3rd floor to clean the play room, Heini being his usual "helpful" self. Then I painted the bath tub & the chair. After supper I went to church with Hughie - Stuart Galt preached one of his usual sermons & I was very sleepy. Cleaned bathroom later.

Anna B. sent us a box of pepper mint chocolates from Hagia's Store

Saturday, April 6, 1935

Our bathroom is so beautiful I can hardly bear to leave it. I put everything back in its place & then went down town with Heine & paid all my bills. After lunch I had a time restringing Mabel whose elastic had gotten hard in these long years since she was my baby. But Ellen certainly does love her, too. Heine came over & we bathed & our mending & of course had tea. The children are out doors. After supper Hugie & I took great pleasure in just sitting on the deck port. I'm writing. I did, however, write to Ma, Bo ^{about M.} & ^{and} ^{my} ^{Q.}

Sunday, April 7, 1935

Did not have time to appreciate my bath in the bright room so I was in a hurry to go to early church. After breakfast I started on a record-breaking washing which took me until dinner time! After dinner Hugie took Heine & Ellen & Jack for a long walk. Heine took a nap - so Mike & I went out in the sun on the back porch where Mike spilled his glass of milk & could have no more. Later we came in to listen to N. Y. Symphony. Hugie & I had supper alone, but he seemed tired. Later we went to call on the Sudlows & had nice time.

Monday, April 8, 1935

I was awakened at 3 by loud creek-branch broke off of cherry tree outside my window because of its burden of snow!! It was a beautiful white world at seven. I did some mending & struggled to get paint brushes clean.
After lunch I dug out my pastels & took them down to Gail's where I made a passable sketch of her.
I was delighted to find that I had not forgotten how as it is years since I've done any thing. After supper I went to the auxiliary meeting at which Mrs. Sudlow spoke on Japan. wrote in neglected diary afterward.

Tuesday, April 9, 1935

When I had my chores done I got to work cleaning Hugie's & my bureau drawers. Henry came home from school with red, runny eyes so I kept him home after lunch until Hugie came from Kiwanis & took him to Dr. Hoffman - a kind of cold after the measles. He doesn't have to go to bed much requires much eye bathing etc. Martha was here with her knitting She is so peaceful. And after supper I went to Gail's to the Bridge club & found Martha was my partner & we actually beat Beanie & Grace!!

Wednesday, April 10, 1935

The weather is uncertain but I finally decided we would clean our bedroom this afternoon & get to work on the trunk-knacks & curtains & bedspreads. And after lunch Evagran & I got to work in earnest. Henry, meaning black glass kept things outside & we got along so well that we did the linen closet, too - only that was a little too much I found out, for I was head tired when I finally got the children to bed. And Hugie seems sort of cool & I'm not so happy. Lazily sat on davenport & read all evening.

Thursday, April 11, 1935

Most awful night - none about Hugie marrying me else & sending me & Heinie's! In fact, I cried over it! I did some washing & then went down town to buy Hugie's Easter present hair brushes! - & a new hat. Hugie met me at the hat store & liked the hat & gave me home. I gave it to Mary Craig's to the Reading Class in the afternoon & it was approved by the critics. After supper I wrote to Dad - we sent him some tiny cigars for his birthday. Then Hugie & I have cleaned the "Big Bay" which is more fun than work. O.

Friday, April 12, 1935

Henry had a pain at six + was seasick at seven o'clock. He got dressed but later went to bed again.
He slept + I cleaned the bureau drawers in his room + Mike made a lot of noise on the bare floor. After lunch Eugene + I cleaned the study but had to let Henry's room go - Mike was in my own way. Henry's temp. was 103½ at 4 so I sent for Dr. Hoffman who came when we were there cleaning + said it is tonsillitis.
What next?? Mike also has the "pink eye".
Henry + I went to church - Maynard preaching.

Saturday, April 13, 1935

Henry seems all right this morning! What a family, what a winter!
I did a lot of plain + fancy washing. Got check from Bo for $25! Dashed him for $10 to clean Ma's house. He is good. After lunch I got busy making cottons for acolytes. Just then Jiddie Drigley came + stayed + stayed, but I poked him off on Henry.
The cottons were a job + Mike a pest, but Henry amused him self nicely.
This ally finished 1 cotton.
After supper Gen + Birchy came to play bridge with us + we had a lot of fun I thought.

Sunday, April 14, 1935

Went to church at 8 - got Henry bathed & dressed & went to church again at 11 with Hughie & Ellen.
Long service with palm procession, baptism & communion! Jeddie playing with Henry - Jeddie slept at Heinie's - he is a terrible bore. After dinner I attached the second & last collar & finished it by supper-time while Henry & Nulko got very hot & ran out of kitchen. Ellen with Jane.
Heinie got supper over & soon Hughie went to bed.
He thinks he has measles.
I pray not! I wrote to Bean, Ruth & Hope about me & in

Monday, April 15, 1935

It's a nasty, snowy kind of day but I am determined to get the children's room cleaned so I did the pictures and a few things in the morning and after lunch ~~long~~ & I got to work in earnest. Those cute little white beds are not so cute when it comes to cleaning them and it was supper time before we had everything in order again.
Hughie stayed home all day, fixing his stamps & keeping Henry & Nulko more or less quiet. I was finally able to sit with him in the evening - he is O.K. again.

Tuesday, April 16, 1935

Slept late and spent the rest of the morning darning sock and keeping Mike & Henry from fighting. How I would love to send Henry back to school, but the weather is not conducive. After lunch I got Glen to come & keep me from going crazy listening to Mike & Henry and she succeeded very well. I am making myself a blue & eggshell silk knit scarf. But in the evening when Heinnie was here she agreed with me that it is queer & I had to rip it all out. Hughie shining up the Kiwanis table! He gave me a light

Wednesday, April 17, 1935

Ellen dressed Mike for me so it wasn't until 9 o'clock that I found that Evagran was sick at home. Hughie & Ellen had gotten breakfast for the family. I managed to get lunch. When I had the dishes all washed I got Mike to lie onavenport with me & we slept until 10 o'clock with her mending. We had tea & Heinnie joined us. I finished the scarf but it was all ~~padding~~ so I ripped it out again! Henry went to school again this afternoon. After supper I began that blue & eggshell scarf again while Hughie read to me - word expert in

Woke up back again. I ate breakfast in peace & then went to church. I made a quick trip down town & stop to see Ellis's nice new school room in the armory. Liked his teacher Miss Dotterer. Washed when I got home. After lunch I lay down to rest until time to go to Grace's to the Reading Class. I worked on my scarf again & it was too small so I made more. Dipped it!! After supper I finally knit it all right and finished it before going to bed. Huggie was working on his stamps - I had the radio going to entertain me.

Friday, April 19, 1935

I did my chores as usual and had an early lunch in order to go to church at 12. Huggie went with me. Mr. Sudlow had a very nice service but couldn't make it last till quite three o'clock. I went home then and went down town to get some things for the children's Easter - we made tea when we got back but I was so busy gardening that I had scarcely time to drink it. Put the children to bed and after supper Huggie & I went to see Mrs. Pierre Boal about a fire - she's nice - & called on my Lillian before bed.

Saturday, April 20, 1935

Heinie & I left soon after 8 for Williamsport - we had a beautiful day & were very happy. She went to her oculist and dentist to my favorite store - 'book worths' - where I met her later on, both with our arms full of bundles. We had lunch & did a little more shopping & then went to the Longells where we chatted with M. B. & had a high ball. Our next stop was Betty Martin's but her house was full of relatives. Home, to find Hugie building play house for H. & E. We dyed eggs & filled baskets after supper - a full and happy day.

Sunday, April 21, 1935

Hugie, Heinie & I went to church at 6: leaving Ellen in charge. They are good children. They looked for their eggs & things when we got home. I can't decide if Ellen believes in Bunnies or not. Later I attended to my chores. Cat Lou came for a cocktail before dinner. Heinie our only guest at dinner. She & I left Hugie cannot Easter offering. At 4 I took H. & E. Jane & Rich to the children's service. Then I planted plants I bought yesterday & admired Hugie's play house. After supper Heinie, Hugie & I lazily read the papers & listened to radio. Bed.

Monday, April 22, 1935

Wrote to find Dad has not paid his electric bill & they will not turn on the electricity in his house for me to use to clean! But I managed to do my chores. After lunch Evagran, Thelma & I went down there & got to work we built a fire in the old coal water heater to get hot water, but had to borrow some from the Fursts. The house was cold & damp, but we got 2 bedrooms done at last. Peinie & Hugie were building the play house. I would like to be able to help. After supper I drove to Pine Glen with Hugie. Tell me, while I waited for

Dr. Dale died - after nearly two years of paralysis. "My doctor."

Tuesday, April 23, 1935

Washed some quilts & things and tried in vain to get someone to take Reading class as Peggy is sick. I can't go anyway, so I'm pleased. After lunch I took Mike & Glen to keep for afternoon & went on down to Ma's house to get fire started. Evagran & Thelma joined me & we cleaned Bo's room, hall & bathroom and maybe we weren't tired. A warmer day than yesterday, however. Late afternoon along while Hugie carpentered he ate later - Peinie had bridge club. I played ~~bridge~~ & left before cats!

Wednesday, April 24, 1935

Another nice sunny day, so I washed Mike's blankets & then wrote up my long-neglected diary. After lunch Hugie & I took Mike up to Jo's - she will keep him today. Then we went to the where Hugie built the hot water fire for me & I got to work on the living room.
Eugene & Thelma soon came. I washed millions 70 to be exact - pins - needles all the other doo-dads in that place and E.
& I worked their heads off.
We were a tired bunch by supper time - I didn't cheer me up, however, and I wrote to Beau to thank him for the Easter ~~card~~ & to a maid for

Thursday, April 25, 1935

Thought I ought to go to work at Ma's but dilly-dallied with my work at home instead. Consequently I couldn't go to Dr. Dale's funeral after lunch but went to the house to work instead, leaving Mike with Agnes until I came back at 3 to greet Ma & Dad.
They look pretty well & I was mighty glad to see them. They had presents for us all, a slip & some fancy bracelets for me. Went back to the house before I came home. Ma & Dad will ~~eat~~ make Fido for a while. Hugie & I went to see Mr. Chevalier in "Folie's Bergere" - good. & then to American Legion dance. ~~not so~~

Friday, April 26, 1935

No more house cleaning for a while - rejoice! I did a few chores & then went to see Ma. We went to her house & unpacked a few things. After lunch I put the extra things away, got the horse bed out of the "Black Box" as Eva Jean's mother is buying it - $5! Then I manicured my toenails & Ma arrived. I showed her all the new things & then we went up in the back yard to knit while Hugué worked there on the cute little play house. Spring is here at last. After supper Hugué & I went down to Uncle Fred & call on the family & had a very pleasant evening.

Saturday, April 27, 1935

Did my chores & then took Tuke & Henry down town to buy shoes for them. Hugué brought us home. It is frightfully hot - 80° in the shade! I kept peeling clothes off of the children but they were still hot. I put ticks in Tuke's & Henry's underwear and Ma came with her quilting. We went upstairs at Hugué's to sit with her while she cleaned books. Hugué working on house - Let H. & E. stay up late. I got supper as Eva Jean took off. Later the Shuffles came in & we had highball but we were a peeples lot.

Sunday, April 28, 1935

Went to early church. When I got home. I found Evagrau looking very forlorn so when breakfast was over I sent her home. I did a few chores, visited the little play house which looks quite cute by now.
All three children helped me shell peas which I cooked for dinner, also a beautiful roast beef. Huguie & Ellen helped me with the dishes.
I made a plan of my garden & Ma came up to see us. She told of her trials, talking to Uncle Fred.
I wonder if he has to be so queer. After a late supper I fell asleep on the davenport for nearly 2 hours.

Monday, April 29, 1935

Eva-grau did not come so I had to wash about & get breakfast for the children.
Then Thelma came to help.
I was very glad. ~~Before~~ so we got the house in order & some lunch made.
In the afternoon I finished my morning's washing & then kids & I sat on front porch where we ~~were~~ joined by Ma & then Martha. We had tea.
A thunder storm came up & the air cooled considerably. Huguie went out to supper (thank goodness!) & came home at 8 so I could go to time Lamb's to St. Mary's only wish that wish.

Tuesday, April 30, 1935

Again, I got breakfast + Thelma came later. When I had my daily jobs done I sat in my room to attack a pile of mending with Thelma protesting around.
Hugie out to lunch, but there were plenty more matters to feed. I went back to my mending + Ma came + joined me upstairs + helped me - a lot of odd mending while has been on my mind for months.
Hugie working on the play house + supper very late with the children going to bed still later.
I did a pile of darning when I finally got thru with the dishes. Hugie ^{read} ~~to me~~

Wednesday, May 1, 1935

Not depressed when ~~anyone~~ still didn't turn up. But after breakfast when Thelma came. I cheered up + gave her a lot of work to do.
And did a big washing myself. It is cold again that nice Spring weather has disappeared. After lunch I took Thelma down + Ma's + helped her hang curtains. She got word her maid isn't coming + I felt so sorry for her. I came home in time to make Hugie's egg nog. Had tea with Mrs. Dutton + Heinnie.
Another late supper - should what this time! Hugie ~~was~~ out + I mended shorts + put sleeves in red clothes blouse.

Thursday, May 2, 1935

A rainy day, so I knew gippy Evagian wouldn't be here. But Thelma & I manage somehow. I made a night rice tapioca pudding. Washed & got bed. Then I did a bit of ironing before going to Deborah's to Reading class leaving Thelma here with Miles. Our book "Without my Cloak" was very interesting today and we read quite late. Henry & Ellen & a few others out in the drizzle with Nogie, fixing the house & mud all over our house!
H. & E. very scrappy today.
I got tired of children.
Supper late as usual - H. & E. went to see Ma & Dad. ^{wrote to} 2:40

Friday, May 3, 1935

waggle back again, hurried.
The whole family glad to see her. Went to church at 9:30 but there was no one there, so I put the things away & went down town & met Betty Gostjust after I'd written to her!
I bought cute curtains & put them up in Ellen's house as soon as I got home. Betty came in to see me until Henric got home. After lunch Hugie took Mike & me + a car load of stuff to the ~~meeting~~ sale where I helped put things in order. Mike very good. I bought 3 of Martha's nighties for $1 - nice cool cotton ones. Mike & I went to see Ma - not at home.
After supper Hugie & I saw a wonderful movie - ~~Knight's Monthly~~

Saturday, May 4, 1935

Still raining & the children are crying to play in their play house! I did my work as usual & after lunch Heini & I went to the rummage sale where we sold all kinds of things to all kinds of people.
It was over at 4 & then Heini, Deborah & I went to the candy kitchen & had tea.
Mrs. Swallow joined us there.
We had a jolly time. Then I had to go to the church & arrange the flowers, etc on the altar. They are beautiful.
After supper Hugie & Deborah in our boat & went to the Sings for a cocktail before going to the club to a rince dance - mostly our age.
How slippery - Vinifred fell ^{on} ^{her} ^{back}!

Sunday, May 5, 1935

Dragged myself out of bed in time to go to early church. After a nice big breakfast I made the beds & then it was time to go to church again - this is my week on the altar girls.
After church Hugie & I went to Dad's for cocktails with Mr. Cook. We stoped across the street to see Vinifred's room. After dinner I took a nap while the children made a lot of noise with their daddy - it's raining & he's doing odd jobs. Later Mike & I went to see Ma & Dad. Heini ate cereal with us - & we lazily read the Sunday paper.
I wrote to F. Union ^{ordering} shoes instead of having ^{making} ^{me} ^{make} them!

Monday, May 6, 1935

Rushed thru my work to go down town in the rain to pay my bills & to look at wall paper. I liked one of the cheaper ones & Hugie who joined me there liked it, too. After lunch I called up most every one I knew & come to spend the afternoon & finally got Deborah. It is raining & Ma isn't coming. Mike got a new spool of adhesive tape & made a fine mess of it. Deb. & I had tea & a very nice chat. I admitted, I'd like to soon finish Mrs. W's house. After supper Hugie took me to see Win Powell & Myrna Loy in "The Thin Man" which was most amusing. We dropped in to see Ma & Dad one over home. Happy e.

Tuesday, May 7, 1935

Henry ate no breakfast & didn't want to go to school - Oh, dear is he getting sick again? But he played nicely enough with Mike. The telephone was busy & I had a hectic morning arranging for my bridge club. In the afternoon I expected H. Gigg & her son but they didn't come and I got in a nice nap before Ma came - & Heinie. Then I served tea Ma gave me on a nightie & Hugie gave me that... wasn't very becoming. It looks marvelous now. After supper the bridge club arrived with Mary Craig, Olive & Winifred substituting for Martha, Pussay & Glen. I gave them strawberry short cakes. Nice meeting.

Hugie completed playhouse this P.M.

Wednesday, May 8, 1935

A nice day at last, so as soon as my work was done I took a suit of Hughie's boots & exchange it for a nicer one. Then I went to 5 & 10 & got all excited about the nice, cheap, boys suits there! But I have no more money. After lunch I cut out a suit for him & began stitching it. Ma came & right Ellen's summer dresses to her then, like a dear. Thank goodness Ellen will not need new ones. After supper, Hugie & Heinie bathed, I continued stitching but every thing seemed to go wrong. Perry came in for a while & cheered me up even when I had to rip. My + projects are a nuisance.

Thursday, May 9, 1935

Made the beds etc & then went out to weed my garden - a job I love! Mike helped me! After lunch I manicured etc to be beautiful to go with the blue to Pleasant Gap to the Reading class at Peggy Warner's. It was a hilarious meeting, discussing where to have our luncheon for Betty Gost, etc. My blouse for Mrs. Warfield is a crazy shape & added to the hilarity. After supper I finished the Reading class book "Without my Clock" by Kate O'Brien as I have it for next time! I just couldn't wait. Then I sat upstairs, quilting, with Hugie fixing his stamps. He is blue & depressed these days.

Friday, May 10, 1935

After I had my house in morning order I settled down to clean the book case in the living room. And after lunch I cleaned my desk before going with Deborah to State College to the Inn to see about having a luncheon there. Mike went with us & had a beautiful time eating ice cream. Deb. dropped us at Ma's, but Miss & Mrs. Cook were there & then Mike & I & Heinie so I did not get to talk to Ma much. Had to carry Mike home! Blister on his heel. After supper I was tired & depressed - Hugie is not well & so gloomy. And then Mr. Sudlow came in & asked me to inspect Aug. & St. to raise $500 & $300!

Saturday, May 11, 1935

Heinie, Henry & Ellen went with me at 7 to meet Bo in Lewis town. So Hugie could sleep. It was a beautiful drive - bright sunlight & gay apple blossoms. Did my usual chores when we got home. After lunch I cut Ellen's hair, got Henry off to Peter's movie party, washed Ellen's & my own hair & then got Ellen off to the college with the Cliffs. Mike & I went out to dig in the garden & Bo & Ma came. Bo got busy burning Heinie's tent caterpillars. Hugie & I went to Ma's to dinner. Deb. did very well - and we had a most enjoyable time, altho Hugie is not feeling very well.

Sunday, May 12, 1935

Went to church at 8 & put the things away for Nina.
Got Hugie to stay in bed for rest today. I did my washing etc & then picked a lovely bunch of lilacs & tulips to take to Martha who has been sick. John surprised me a martini which I did enjoy. After dinner Henry & I went for the news paper & took the wash to the Haupt.
Then all 3 did dinner & I went for a drive with Bo & Ma.
Bo bought us some pansies which Ellen & I planted when we got home. *. Bo came to supper here with Heenie. Hugie & I dashed to church - confirmation - & found Mary Forbes here watching Bo & Heenie play chess!

Monday, May 13, 1935

The paper hangers arrived unexpectedly but Hugie sent them off as I had planned to sleep.
And sleep I did until nearly eleven! Ma phoned that her maid Delia had just plain quit - oh dear. Soon after lunch Mr. Evans who is running the church campaign for $50,000, came to tell me what to tell the auxiliary tonight. Later I knitted, thinking over my "speech". Ma & Bo came in for a little while.
I feel most blue & depressed.
After supper I went to the aux. meeting & got them to pledge $700! Then I met Hugie at Ma's where we stayed until Woodie came to take Bo to the train. ^{9:45 to 10:00} 5 hrs.

Tuesday, May 14, 1935

The paper hanger, Tim Mc Ginty, arrived at 8 & was allowed to stay today. He started peeling the paper in upper hall.

Ironed & ordered things until I could get upstairs to do a little washing.

After lunch I spent some time writing up neglected diary. I cleaned my desk & little diary bag case, stopping a lot to watch him take the paper off with steam. After supper a friend of friend drove her time & Hugie & me to the college in a most reckless manner. But we lived to see Charles Laughton in "Ruggles of Red 9". I bought a new book.

Wednesday, May 15, 1935

Did not have to get up quite so early as he is putting paper on in lower hall. Such a mess this house is in now! I got a little work done but I got fascinated watching the pretty diagonal paper go on - it has six little scenes in it. I took time up to my bed for a nap after lunch. Mr. Withers came to take center light out of living room. Later I cleaned drawers in sideboard. Took a plat, nursing off with the best silver spoons. Hugie & I read a bit in this house & went to bed early. I'll be glad when

Thursday, May 16, 1935

all this time Ma is without a maid & I too busy to help her. When I came to breakfast Mr Finley said he wanted to start on living room so we hurriedly moved everything out & then I scrubbed the rug with ammonia out in the yard. Quite a job. Then I decided to go to lunch with Reading class in honor of B.
Got at Sally's. It was nice. We went to Vinifredo's & play bridge. Everyone took a prize there & another one home - mine that I won was a pair of pants! Sam made highballs for us. After supper Oat at Skinnis - Hagie's car. he is still feeling him & 9.

Friday, May 17, 1935

I've been mad because the papering was going so slowly. But today two men were working & it began to fly. While one papered living room other took off dining room.
I cleaned the second rug.
We had our lunch on back porch much to child's joy.
Fortunately, we are having perfect weather. I cleaned slip covers with alcohol etc.
Wageau scrubbed living room.
The paper hangers were there before five - thank goodness! - but we worked till after six. Skinnis kindly fed the children. While I was putting on finishing touch later Pete & Jo came & took us off to college to see F. March & C. Luntton in "Les Misérables".

Saturday, May 18, 1935

Made beds & cleaned up - stair while Margaret scrubbed dining room. Then I vacuumed the rug & we ate our lunch in there. As soon as we had all the furniture cleaned & in place (Gen came to see play house) we started on the glass & silver ware for corner cupboard. Ma, like a dear, came to help us. Heine, who had been riding, made tea for us & finally we were thru without out any accident.
My, but the place looks beautiful. After supper I hung pictures. Percy's father died. Hugie made me a welcome cocktail later - he is feeling better - o.

Sunday, May 19, 1935

Went to early church & then surprised Ma by going there to help fast & helping with the dishes.
She gets a maid tomorrow.
Came home to wash & fix flowers for my pretty room.
Ma & Dad came to dinner & brought old curtains & plate rack I'm giving to her.
Henry is at Middlowood's camp for day. After dinner I took Hugie to club & then Heine, Ma, Mike, Ellen & Idora Dad to Lewis town to get train to Lancaster. He had milkshakes there & were convinced by Mike drinking his. Ma came here to supper.
I cleaned rack & Hugie hung it & I tried various plates in it.

Took lunch of butter cups over to Pussy. Monday, May 20, 1935

Back on the old routine once more. Along with my regular wash I did Ma's old curtains & after lunch Evagene & I put them on Mrs. Cann's stitches and while they dried we washed dishes in big cup board, Ma coming & help again - we got the little cup board done too. Hugie is all excited about making money with a chain letter, everyone sending the next a dollar.
We, Hugie, Heinie & I, went to a dinner at Parish House where they are starting campaign to raise $10,000. Mr. Fieg-all spoke well - I decided to give $25 - from where?

Tuesday, May 21, 1935

I spent the morning cutting, hemming & hanging Ma's curtains. They look fancy but very pretty & different.
After lunch Evagene & I cleaned the kitchen, the dirtiest job of all, but the last, thank goodness, as I am getting sick & tired of cleaning. We worked until supper-time. Ma dropped in but did not stay to help. Pussy's father was buried this afternoon. Hugie fell down.
Her friend, Git, dropped in & had cocktail with us before supper. In the evening I finally had time to read the ~~evening~~ papers! Bed early.

Augie went to church meeting after supper and I had to stay with Wednesday, May 22, 1935
children.

went to church at 10 and attended the Arch deaconry meeting afterward. Augie came there to tell me the astounding news of Uncle Fred's secret engagement to Grace! So, if the meeting grew dull I had plenty to think about. All the anglican ladies went to the Methodist church & church.
I went with Mrs. Sudlow & Mrs. Brown, the bishop's wife. I had time to smoke a cigarette at Rectory before going back to meeting till nearly 4. Then I called on Sarah & Mary Valentine for money for our campaign. Augie & I had supper at Sudlow's as Bishop wasn't there. Home alone to knit.

Augie joined me at Ma's when ~~He came home!~~ Thursday, May 23, 1935
Dad has darling bull puppy.

Just can't get over news of Uncle Fred & Grace! I called Grace, asking her to come early this P.M. so I could express my pleasure. I did my chores & arranged flowers & after lunch got everything ready for the Reading club. Grace didn't come early so I had to act as if nothing were unusual.
Peggy only one absent. They all admired paper, curtain plate rack & play house!
Gave them ham & muffins & cookies. We finally finished the books. Tables picked in & looked very cute. Wall set down town with Jo afterwards.
Augie at club, when he came home I went to see Ma & Dad.

Friday, May 24, 1935

Did my chores & went to see Uncle & coole about church money. After lunch Hugie took Heinie Henry & Ellen over to see the Robbins circus here in town. It was small but amusing. I laughed hard when a little Rife boy tried to ride a donkey & gradually lost his pants while suspended from a rope. But when he cried with embarrassment I nearly cried too. Heinie & I had tea afterwards & went to see Betty Mc Nichol about church. Then Brickley & Gen came to dinner. He brought lobsters from Washington (D.C.) which I ate with great joy.
Hugie & I had to go to church meeting but returned soon to play bridge with B. & Gen.

Saturday, May 25, 1935

Went about my duties as usual with occasional chats with Heinie.
It is a beautiful warm day. After lunch she & I got busy getting our porch furniture out of cellar & scrubbing it. I went over to "Louie's Lot" for a while with Henry & the boys as they wanted to build a fire. Talked to Mrs.
Witman who gave me two suits for Henry. Then Heinie & I had tea which filled me with enough energy to give Jack a bath!
Then it was time for Nick's & supper. I read the Post-Star way behind! - Hugie went up to Shefferson. I fell

Sunday, May 26, 1935

Hugie went to early church with me & then he fixed the sand box, etc. while I did a great big washing. It was nice to watch him with the children - he's a fond daddy. We went to Ma's to dinner where Annie Whipo did beautifully in spite of Dad's fussing & nasty joking. He was terrible. Ma & the children & I took Hugie to club & then went thru Madi Doumbing Gap - beautiful - & back to club for Hugie. I got out the cereals for supper - Hugie & Dalone - & then we read the papers. I can't stop thinking about Ma & Uncle Fred!!!

Monday, May 27, 1935

Started early in the morning on a great pile of mending. And continued it after lunch until Nat came when I took my morning to the front porch. Ma joined us & we had tea. A woman came later with a plan to make money for church - a series of entertainments. I liked it but Heinnie didn't, nor did any of St. Mary's when I asked them at supper at the Parish House. It was the end of our campaign & we didn't quite reach 5,000 - instead of 10. Hugie, Heinnie & I went into Sudlows afterward & later Hugie treated us all ~~and~~

Tuesday, May 28, 1935

Washed my best Table cloth and then ironed it with a lot of summer dresses etc. After lunch I was weary and took a little nap. Another woman came to see me about raising money - then toilet paper! Ma came too & helped me hang them Ma's rose chiffon K. Sig dropped in for a minute. Hugie came to work & later Glen came to talk over with me & Grace as she had just heard it. Heinie went with Hugie to a Kinsman's dinner while I put the children to bed. Then the bridge club at Jo's, but it was mostly excited talk about Grace who was not present. Janet

Wednesday, May 29, 1935

Made beds, etc before going with Hugie Ma & Dad to Uncle Fred's wedding at H. Hugie was sort of best man altho they had no attendants. It was very simple & sort of sad. In the Presbyterian church with only a few present. I still can't see why Grace would want to marry him. Went down town with Ma from there. After lunch Sarah Fleming came to see Mike before I went to Martha's to Reading class. We started "40 Days on the Dagli" by Franz Werfel. We did not talk much of Grace we are. Talked out I guess. After supper Heinie & I took Jim Martin to St. M. ^{at 10:15} ~~at 10:15~~

Ascension Day!
Thursday, May 30, 1935
Memorial Day!

went to church with Ma at 8 - there was a prayer for Thy servants Fred & Jim I can't stop thinking about them. Did a big washing while Heinie took children to see their Daddy parade. After lunch I took Heinie & the children to Beech Creek & then Uncle Dick's - only Aunt Gertie there. We saw all the dogs & the children had a fine time running in the big garden.
Heinie & I got supper, & made hors d'oeuvres for our highball party in honor of Bridley & Gus' wedding anniversary.
Craig & Suig came too & then we all went to the dance at the club which was

Friday, May 31, 1935

Thought I couldn't drag myself out of bed, but when I finally did, I got energetic & washed a blanket. After lunch I wrote up long-neglected diary & then met Gen who went to Ma's with Mike & me. We sat on the pach, knitting & watching cute Mike & Carter Towson.
I made tea for Gen & me too. At five we left to see if our children had come home from their various school picnics.
They were tired but happy.
After dinner I worked on my diary while Heinie painted the furnace. Pete came in for a while later.

Saturday, June 1, 1935

Washed another blanket + the final batch of the children's winter clothes. After lunch I wrote in diary + then took Ma + Annie + Mike in search of flowers for our gardens - to green houses + green meadows. We had a lot of fun + stopt in Howard for an ice cream cone - Mike's first, I think.
Ellen at Jane's party. Run with Richard. I planted until I had to faint Mike + bed + then finished planting after supper.
My garden is about full now. After supper I worked on Mrs. Warfield's sweater (I must finish it) while Hugie had her little story.

Sunday, June 2, 1935

Went to early church - Ma there - beautiful morning.
Washed another blanket
and did some mending before going over to Annie's with my knitting. Hugie went to golf after dinner + I had the car so I took Ma, Mike, Jane + Ellen for a ride. We stopt to see Dad + "Dowser" for a while after the ride.
But I came home to check Mrs. W.'s sweater to see if I can improve its shape! Gave children supper + read papers while Hugie played her tall with children. Finally had our supper, dandered a bit + figured in my little

Monday, June 3, 1935

Did a little washing and then hurried downtown to shop as at last I have money again! Met Hugie to drive home. After lunch I figured out my accounts and then took my quilting - the scarf for Mrs. W. - to the front porch where Martha soon joined me. Then I got in spirit to print tickets with Henry's printing set for our scavenger hunt. They really turned out quite well. After supper with Hugie + Heinie one out so I mended a sheet and made a cute little pink-flowered nightie for Ellen - for when she has her towels out, won't want hand

Tuesday, June 4, 1935

Dark rainy day and I overslept. Dressed + cleaned up a pair of shoes I once threw away! Then I went downtown, stopping on the way to talk to Agnes Beyer about Mule Feed + Grace. I sold some tickets downtown. Got home to lunch very late. Sat on the porch, peacefully quilting. Ma joined me + took Ellen's nightie to put lace on. When she left I dressed my scint Mai sent, transplanted some flowers + got the children's supper. Hugie out - but came home to take me to the High School Alumni Dance. It was in the new gym. Fun - sold more tickets!

Wednesday, June 5, 1935

Before I'd finished making beds a man came to deliver shale a Hoover sweeper.
Such quantities of dirt he got out of my newly-scrubbed rug! If only I had the money to buy one, but I'm already short this month! Had time to wash a blanket before lunch & afterward I did the big wash of the children's.
Then Ma came & we sat on porch. I got a box of salt water taffy from Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds! But it is for the Bridge club! Hugie went to club so Heinie came over to supper. Made another, blue, nightie for Ellen. Heinie read to me. Hugie home at 2! & I worried Hugie away again - golf match Thursday, June 6, 1935 in Holland Lug.

Hugie quite spry considering his late hours last night - at Hecla Park! I seemed to do a lot of odds & ends & not accomplish much. Tried to sell tickets up the street & took K. Seig's stockings then, that we ordered. Heard that George Ray is dead - such an attractive young fellow, too.
Had lunch with Ma & Dad & then went across to Wini-fie's to Reading class. But we didn't read! We sat in her garden - lonely. I took Grace's box of candy, only it was macaroons! Ellen over at Ma's! Henry with Widowson. I got supper for Ma & E. & crocheted crocheted edge & ate supper at nine &

Friday, June 7, 1935

Did a big washing in the morning including another blanket! After lunch Hugie took me & Ellen to Dr. Adams' office to see about her tonsils. Then I went with Deborah V. to the hospital where we helped Mrs. Thompson & Miss Sarah Valentine to mend those awful hospital clothes. But the time passed quickly. After supper Hugie & I got all dressed up & went to State College to the Phi Kappa Sigma dance on the invitation of the Monio boys - but neither ever appeared! We were early so we called on Janet for a while & then went back to the dance which ^{was} ~~was~~ ^{very} ~~good~~.

Ellen was very good, didn't mind being left alone at night.

At 8:30 Hugie took Ellen & me out to the Center County hospital where a nice nurse named Mabel Hallman got her ready to have her tonsils taken out by Dr. Adams at 9:30. I watched from her window I could see in the operating room a bit. She came back after 10 and Mabel & Joat & watched her till she came out of ether at 11:30 - woke up suddenly & completely. Henrie stayed with her while Joat & I went to lunch. I spent the afternoon there - Ellen slept mostly & was sick a couple of times. She wanted her room as soon as she awoke. Henrie came with me

Sunday, June 9, 1935

After I had made the beds I went with Hugué & the boys to the hospital to get Ellen. She cried when she knew she was to go home. We packed up Mabel the doll & said good-bye to Mabel the nurse, also to Mrs. Madburn who had the room opposite. She went to bed when she got home & Heinie & I sat in the room with her. In the afternoon Ma came to see her & brought ice cream but it didn't taste very good to her. Jane & Kathryn came with flowers, also Richard brought some. Later she was willing to go to sleep with Mike. Missy came in at supper time & later Jo & Pete came.

Monday, June 10, 1935

I kept Ellen in bed till about 10 but then it was so warm & sunny outdoors I let her go out & play quietly with Jane on the back porch. I didn't seem to get much work done, watching her. After lunch she & Mike & I lay on our beds & took a nice nap. Then we went down to the back porch where Ma joined us. After she left I got a box of macaroons from Grace. After supper I went to the auxiliary meeting at Mrs. Richards. I stopped on my way home to welcome Mabel Fred & Grace. Ma & Dad were there. Grace was not coming & had Mabel F. Campbell.

Tuesday, June 11, 1935

Let Ellen get up at the regular time as she seems very well except for her sore throat. Did a little mending & went to Curtis St. selling Scavenger Hunt tickets. After lunch I got Ellen to lie down while I manicured & got ready to go with Hagie & Heinie to Beech Creek where we dropped Heinie & went on to Uncle Dick's where we spent an amusing half hour before going on to Mill Creek port & the Conells to supper. Then we each went to the Hagens. Wallace & Paw & Sells Circus. It was great except I felt sad for dear old helpie Adona who is now merely a good-looking ^{man} ^{to} ^{the} ^{city} ^{man}.

We made $20.00 on Hunt.
Coffin, Wednesday, June 12, 1935 Hunt.

I slept late and when I finally had beds made I sat down to telephone to sell tickets & stayed there till lunch time. After lunch Hagie took Heinie & Henry & Ma & me to Boalsburg. We stayed there a while & Ma & I rummaged around & talked to Mrs. Naggy caretaker's wife. It was a beautiful day to drive. When I got home I fixed flowers which I took to Pauline after supper to decorate for Scavenger Hunt. About 60 people went on Hunt. St. M. Guild made sandwiches while they were gone. They came back with dishes & everything & there was much ^{fun} ^{to} ^{be} ^{had}.

Thursday, June 13, 1935

Did a big pile up washing in the morning and after lunch went down to Ma's with Mike. There I printed tickets for a Strawberry festival for the Aup. & delivered some on way home. "The King is dead; Long live the King." Ellen at Cliffs. To supper Hugie had Henry at ballgame so Mike & I were all alone. Bill Keller dropt in to see Heinie (out) & talked to us for a while before we had any supper, Hugie & I - but we weren't in any hurry - Gvaganoff.
Hugie & I took Ellen to see Dr. Adams today & he pronounced her throat perfect.

Friday, June 14, 1935

Such a warm sunny day I couldn't resist & washing another blanket. Then I went down town & got money for Hunt fund from McGawey. After lunch I took cards & Mike to Cats to Reading Club & Gen helped me print two posters for Strawberry festival while we read "Musa Dagh" - but none of us like the story.
Arranged flowers afterwards & at 6:30 Uncle Fred & "Grace" came to a very nice dinner, except I forgot the nuts. They were both pleasant. We took them to see Ted Astaire, Ginger Rogers & Irene Dunne in "Roberta" - was awfully good. Miss O

Henry got 5 + took from Tilly B. from Dad Saturday, June 15, 1935

Happy birth day, Henry! The playhouse is his gift but soon lots of little boys arrives with presents for him. Such a noise they made while Eva Jean + I got their picnic ready. At 11 Hugie took me, Ellen, Nels, Henry, Richard, Jackie, Peter + Heenie to the wallers cabin behind the club. But it cleaned up so we didn't go in the cabin. They ate heartily, swinging high on swing, played base ball + waded in the stream + were a tired dirty bunch at six when we brought them home. Hugie + I had mud. needed highballs + went to the wallers' foray on Nels + Peter.

Sunday, June 16, 1935

Too sleepy to go to church at 8 - planned to go at 11 but Heenie went to Doty's home + did a great big washing. Eva Jean went home after breakfast as we went to Mrs. to a good big dinner. We took a little ride afterward + then sat with Dad + Jawsen on their porch. Jawsen certainly is a cute bull puppy + the children had fun playing with him. Hugie + I supped alone as Heenie is out with Peggy + Evan Blanchard who are staying with her for a couple of days - half-witted pair! Pete + Jo came to see us. Heenie - highballs.

Monday, June 17, 1935

Rain, so instead of washing I mended by the sewing machine. Printed more tickets for the festival. Took the child down H + E., to see Shirley Temple in "Our little girl." They didn't understand the movie - about divorce - but loved Shirley & the Mickey Mouse comedy. Ellen went home with Jane, but they stuck by me & we had an ice cream cone & stopped to see several cupileaves ladies. Went to Katherine Slig's female supper party in honor of Grace Twenty-six there & bridge afterward but it was almost too late to stay.

Tuesday, June 18, 1935

Rain again! and today is the Sunday School picnic. I watched for it to clear & didn't seem to do much else. Finally Hugie came & took Henry with him to go to picnic but I was afraid to let Ellen go on account of her throat. But she is good. Ma came up to see us in afternoon & we sat on porch & Reggy Bland was with us part of the time. Several salesmen dropped in, too. After supper I dressed in my coolest to go to Martha's to the bridge club & she gave us lemonade & it got positively cold! I played with her we made $3 at Festival.

Wednesday, June 19, 1935

Cold & more rain! Fine day for a strawberry festival!
I did a little washing & gathered together flowers & clothes etc for festival & after lunch Hugie took me & all the stuff to the Parish House. I went from there over to Ma's where I waited with her until 4 when Aunt Mrs. Antin & Grace were at Parish House to fix it. He had planned to have it on Mule F's lawn! Made some rain signs at home & ate shredded wheat & went back at 6, putting sign on Mule F's gate. In spite of rain people came, & we had an accordion player. Hugie took children & Ma. Home at 7. time.

Thursday, June 20, 1935

Did my chores as usual.
It is still raining & cold, such weather for June!
After lunch I went to see Betty Lockington for money for Scavenger fund & then went to Martha's, who took me to State College to the Reading Class at Janet's. Carl & Deborah went with us. We read "No other Tiger" by H. E. W.
Mason - a mystery story which seems to please my one. Got Mike at Evagard.
Hugie at golf match as I had supper with Heinie & we knitted & chatted over tea afterward. Hugie came home early. Nice to have nothing to do!

Still raining.

Friday, June 21, 1935

Spent half the morning fixing a tiny knife I had for years to give to Hugie! And the other half cleaning my big silver tray to lend to Glen. Went down town to pay for festival ice cream. Got nice note from Bob + a telegram from the Loups + Storbo! Went to Gus's bridge party in honor of Grace and had a lovely time - won a little guest towel. Gus gave us a bottle of champagne but it was handy! After supper Hugie + I just went out to celebrate - we called for few minutes on Dad + Ma who had for got what day it is! Ended up at Sky Dale + on the Harry.

Saturday, June 22, 1935

Slept very late - we didn't get to bed till two last night! And when my household duties were done I mended jewelry! After lunch no one here so I took a nice long nap! Ma came for a little while + then went with Dottie I had to their cabin to a supper for St. Mary's Guild - Heine, Mrs. Sudlow, Betty Malin + Betty Lockington. We walked in woods + gathered moss - had "snifter" + good supper + then sat around fire + knitted and told stories and had a thoroughly good time. Home at 11 - it is hot.

Sunday, June 23, 1935

Went to early church with Ma and went to her house to break fast afterward. It was lots of fun. Went up to see Dad in bed before leaving. Then came home to tackle a big wash.

Heinie came to dinner. We had a leg of lamb, a present from Ma, also a cake she bought me at the festival. I fixed moss in bowls for Heinie & Glen.

Agnes Scott & Libby arrived to see Heinie. Later I walked down town with Ma & Ellen. Hergie & I supped alone and then I finished my pink linen overcoat and read the papers. Bed to keep warm!

Monday, June 24, 1935

H. M. lunch as usual. We have such a time with Mike running off to Glen! He is getting most independent.

After lunch I mended until Martha came. Wrote letters, too, to Bo, Kitty & Susie & Lillian Sheffer. Martha & I sat on porch & had nice hot cup of tea, and discussed the many parties we have been to. Mike rode down the hill on his piddy car with Wenny & Richard on their bikes - he's cute.

In the evening I wrote up my long-neglected diary. Hergie cleaned cellar.

As soon as I had done a few chores I went out in the garden to work. After lunch I donned my sun suit & went out to work again and got a nice sunbath. The children were playing around & Heinie had some girl scouts there to learn wig-wagging. I thought Hugie was going to cut the grass but he disappointed me & went to golf. So I sent word by Ellen & Wayne not to come back and finally I got their supper & Heinie & Dale were on the front porch. She & I read. I started a murder story in the Post. Such leisure!

Wednesday, June 26, 1935

Another beautiful sunny day but I had to stay indoors and do a big washing & ironing. After lunch I operated on Ruthie's festured heel. A man came to the door cleaning sewing machines and I foolishly let him down. Not that he bent it, but it wasn't worth the $2 I had to pay him. Jim & Susan. Hugie came to cut the grass today. I made a pink slip to wear with the pink linen dress. I intended to finish it after supper but got lazy & read more of that murder story. Then Hugie & I went out to bed.

Red Ray stayed with Lolita in evening!! Thursday, June 27, 1935 I felt sick & dizzy - onions & martini!

Did some mending & then got all dressed up to go to see Grace. She wasn't home so I went on to see Dad for is feeling quite low these days. Hugie came for me there & Dad gave me a cocktail. After lunch I went to Jo's to see Eleanor's cute baby and then on to Olive's to the Reading club. I spent the whole time just pulling threads is fine linen to make Ellen's pillow case. Went to Waagman to get Mike. Hugie at club for supper but he came home soon & Pete & Jo & Bobby Shoff & Phil Ray came & persuaded me to go to Park to dance to Blanche Callaway's orchestra.

Friday, June 28, 1935

Slept late but got a big washing done before lunch. Then I went to the front porch to sew lace on my new slip & it took me practically all afternoon. Ma came bringing me delicious cinnamon cake. Hugie came home early - he feels as peppy as I - too old for dances! But then, it is very hot today too.
After the children were in bed we went down to call on Dad & Ma for a while. Then Hugie tried to pack for his trip to New Jersey tomorrow where he is going riding with Mr. Duntzman & R. C. [unclear]

Saturday, June 29, 1935

Hugie off at 6:30. I got up later & went to market & then to Ma's to give Jawsen a bath - his first. Then, I came home to make the beds etc, left Evaguan with sandwiches for Miss Valentine's lawn fete. After lunch I went with Jo to the Victory Lion Den & a bridge party given by Zillian Saffer Clark. It was sort of nice, not much to eat much & Bellefontaine regret! Got home at 6:15. Then Heenie & H. & E. came from lawn fete where they had had a beautiful time. Shredded wheat on porch with Heenie. Read Archie Burns "Lightship" till 12.

Sunday, June 30, 1935

Sad to wake up without Hugie. Evaguan had off & we both fasted on Heenie back porch! Then I cleaned up & did a big washing. Heenie went with us to Ma's to dinner. As usual Mule F. & Grace were there for cork tails & she didn't seem to want to move. After dinner we left Dad to his nap & took a pretty drive to Jarnall & Horton's woods. Dropped Heenie at home but the rest of us went back to see Dad. After supper Heenie & I were reading the paper & contemplating sleep when Pat & ~~Ma~~ Murphy came for a long call!

Monday, July 1, 1935

Soon after breakfast Idione Heinie to the college to register at the summer school.
The children went to & I left them at Janet's while I took Ma's pup to the vet up there. Then we collected Heinie & were late getting home to lunch. In the afternoon I took my sewing & children down to Heinie & stayed till I heard Hugie had returned. Found him sorting millions of fish on the back porch. Helped him to deliver them to our friends.
After supper when the children were all in bed he & I sat in the swing and he told me every thing about his splendid trip!

Tuesday, July 2, 1935

A. M. much as usual.
with lots of washing.
In the afternoon I cut out blouses for Hilro & stitched them. Nucle F. brought me some strawberries!
Then Mother & Martha
came & we sat on the porch and later had tea.
I embroidered a blouse.
After supper I left Hugie in charge of children & went to Nucle Fred's to the bridge club!! It was very amusing. Heinie wasn't there & Nellie was substitute & I got her!!! I nearly went crazy.
Helped Grace to get refreshments ready. Nucle Fred joined us. ~~her~~ ~~men~~ ~~lost~~

Wednesday, July 3, 1935

Did some ironing and mending and then felt so sick I had to lie down. I hope it isn't from Hugie's fish!! But I reconnected & went to Rebecca Downorth's very nice luncheon for Bobby Sluffer & Betty Curtis.

There were eight of us & we played bridge.

After last night's expected good cards but got only a one! Went over to see Dad & Ma before coming home. After supper we sat on the porch talking to Heinie and lazily enjoying the cool summer air until bed time - an early one.

Thursday, July 4, 1935

Waggon away & Heinie back. I got breakfast & then the fire crackers began. Later I was alone with Hilce & he overflowed water in bathroom so it flooded hall & ran into the bedrooms & leaked thru to the new wall paper! I was frantic mopping it up. Hugie came & scolded & I cried. After while we all went to Front Street & cooked our lunch. Then it rained, Hugie golf, the rest of us to Gene's cabin. Gene & Brickley & Heinie & I played bridge! After supper & fire works at home Hugie & I went to Craig for cocktails & then to club to dance. ^{Hugie is in bad humor} didn't ask any one to dance.

Friday, July 5, 1935

Saw Heinie before she left for college when I was dressing Mike. Then I slept till lunch later. Went to Ma's & took her to Deborah Drablow's for yarn. In the afternoon I worked on my striped blouse & then Ma came with pyjamas for Beau & I stitched those. We discussed our husbands. Mine finally apologized after lunch today for getting so mad yesterday and I do hope things will be better now. We brought Stew Connell home to supper - fish - & then we got Cat Lane to come over to play bridge and had a very merry evening. Drinks. 6 month came with slip she doesn't want! - a beauty! *

Saturday, July 6, 1935

Slept late and attended to my household duties & then picked & arranged several pretty vases of flowers. Right after lunch I took the children & Ma & her dog to the college to the net again. We stop & for Heinie but it was too early for her to come. It was frightfully hot. Left Ma at her house & came home to shed clothes and to do some mending. Hugie golfing, but Heinie got home in time to have supper with me on the porch. Then she read to me while I finished them for Mike to wear tomorrow.

Sunday, July 7, 1935

Heinie & I had breakfast together & she gave me a lovely walnut tray. Ellen gave me a mat she made, Henry & Mike, 4 postcard cards & Hugie a dozen tramps! Ellen went to church with Hugie & me. Then Ma & Dad & Heinie came to a very nice dinner with a cake & candles from Ma - she also gave me jellies & a pair of stockings. Dad $5 & a check from Bo for $15!! What a nice birthday. But it rained & was very hot. Ma stayed a while after I took Dad home. I mended. Heinie had supper with us before going to bed. Hugie & I read papers.

Monday, July 8, 1935

It is raining but I had a huge washing which had to be done so I got to work. After lunch I went down town to pay my bills & almost drowned in the down pour but persisted as I have so much to do today. Came home & manicured, washed Ellen's hair, mended, ironed and helped Gvageau make sandwiches. After supper Hugie had a meeting of the Kiwanis directors, so I went down to Ma's but Grace & Uncle Fred were there and I had to sit & listen to Grace - she's a worse talker than Aunt H. Later I sewed food for the directors & ironed 2 dresses.

Tuesday, July 9, 1935

Put the house in order, packed the children's & my clothes and baskets of food & at 11 Hugie came to take us all down to Gen's cabin for a week. We are all excited about "going camping". Hugie went back to town and Gen & Mike & I had lunch after sending Henry, Ellen & Jane to Hula Park to the Presbyterian picnic. We had a nice peaceful time reading. Then I practiced hitting a golf ball & when Hugie came we gave the children their supper & Hugie, Gen & I went to club for a couple of holes of golf.
I didn't do so terribly as expected to. After supper Hugie, Gen, Deke & I played bridge.

Wednesday, July 10, 1935

Hugie & I slept beautifully in our corner of the porch. The children woke early but were pretty quiet. After breakfast Hugie had to go to town. Gen & I cleaned up a bit & then took all the children to the golf course while we tried to play. After lunch it rained and I took a nap until time to go to the Park for a swim. Lots of people there & it was cloudy & not so nice.
We had to tie Jack when we left, but the rest of the time he runs & has a gorgeous time. Early supper, put Mike to bed & then Gen & Hugie gave me another golf lesson. We found Winifred & Katherine Shall cross here.

Thursday, July 11, 1935

The bright sun at last! Hugie Dede & I went to the Park for a swim before breakfast & stopt at the club for a shower bath afterward! John helped Gen get every thing in order for the arrival of the Reading club - who came at twelve with their lunches & we all ate & made merry. The children had a picnic in the woods - Mike was with us & a plot when we began to read, until he finally fell asleep. When they all left Gen & I walked thru the woods to see the house the children had built. Mike a scream later playing "Mama". Hugie came after supper. Dede - H. Gen & Dede played cards ^{Brick} came after Another cool night to sleep. Gen as usual had Mike dressed & breakfast ready when we got up. After Hugie left & we had the cabin in order Gen & I went to the club to play golf & had a fine time as Dede had all four children at the park in swimming. They were behaving very well when we got there for our swim. Late lunch. The children went off to the woods. I took sun bath & cold shower - Gen napped. Mike & I shelled peas etc and later Gen & I printed lamps. Hugie came to supper terribly hot in town. He played bridge with Dede. Bridget came at bed time with ice cream.

Friday, July 12, 1935

Saturday, July 13, 1935

Went for an early swim again with Hugie & Dede - & Jack!
Jack is very good & gets along beautifully with Topsy. Gen & I had a time getting our golf as Dede wanted to play & the children were a pest.
Went for a swim afterwards.
Met Cat & Pussay, who showed us P's engagement ring! I'm glad she is going to marry him at last. After lunch Gen & I painted the lamp & Bridg brought a business man in.
Gardner to the cabin. He was deaf & hard to talk to. He stayed to supper. Gen's wife came to cook it. Hugie didn't come till after supper. Bridg & Dede took man to town - Hugie Gen & I played "scrambles" ^{sp.} game

too bad he couldn't be here more. Hugie could stay today & he & I had a fine game of golf. Altho I don't improve much. Gen's antelope hunt & she kept Nuko at cabin & we joined the children for a swim after golf. Hugie & I had each a nice time! While we were washing dinner dishes Heimir arrived! We took her to woods to show her children's play grounds & then sat in the sun & played "scrambles" while Hugie took children for a walk. Supper - & then we sadly packed up & left. I could have stayed longer but Gen wanted to go home to pack & move. ^{Scrambled children} ^{Talked to Heimir}

Monday, July 15, 1935

Took quite a while unpacking & putting away our camping stuff. Also did a big washing. In the afternoon it began to rain so I took a little nap - still raining - I began to mend before I knew it I had done almost all of it! Too rainy to go to Ma's as I had expected but I did run down to Gen's with a big box of candy for her. Thelma went with me, dressed in Ellen's ballet dress, looking like a little girl. After supper I went to Cat's to bridge club.
But Jo & I got beaten - I must try to improve my game - and my mind - I am a ~~very~~ dull person.

Tuesday, July 16, 1935

Slept late - then resolved to get up early hereafter and have more time for reading & improving my mind! Washed a few clothes and went down town to buy myself a bathing suit.
I shall re-line my cotton one into a dress! Came home with Eugie. After lunch I put new oilcloth on cupboard & then Ma came with Bob's pajamas to be stitched. Time to see her again. Later Nikos & I went home with her to see poor old Granddad, who is getting more feeble every day.
After supper I read & helped Eugie tie up prizes for his Keweenaw ball match. Done

Wednesday, July 17, 1935

Hugie got up early to cut the grass and I hurried out to work in my garden. I came in for a while just to make the beds & then went out again to work until noon - more sun-burn, - in fact, I'm peeling a thing I never did before. After lunch I did some mending & then Ma came with another pair of pyjamas. I made some new clothes for Hugie, too. After Ma left I claimed to be working until time to get the children's supper. Hugie is at the Kiwanis outing at the club. I finished "Fighting" by Archie Brown & watched a cute little mouse

Thursday, July 18, 1935

Did a little washing and went down to Ma's to see about mending her dress. In the afternoon I went to the Reading club at Jo's. I started this skirt, but got it twisted so my work was in vain. Found millions of children here on my return - showed them off & missed myself a highball for supper! Later, when the children were all in bed Gen, Grace & I missed came for a game of bridge & much gossip - it was a very amusing evening. Hugie went to golf with Charley & I couldn't go to sleep, worrying, until he got home at 3! Hate it when he's with Charley.

Busy around in the heat packing to go to the Seig's cabin. Packed Max's skint, ~~and~~ after lunch I took it to her before we started for fishing creek - such a load, 3 children, a dog, four blankets & clothes! The Sheffers went to - 4 Sheffers, 4 Seigs, Mr. Rosenberg, (K. Seig's father) & me! But the camp is built for about 100. We all slept in a bunk house in double decker beds. We put on our suits & got wet in the creek - too shallow to swim.
K. Jo & I fed the mob, & later put children to bed. Then we three women played bridge with Mr. R. - we were all sleepy & peppy, ^{much to Pete's} disgust.

Saturday, July 20, 1935

Jack barked at 5:30 & woke the 7 children! We told them to get up & get out & we slept longer.
Breakfast in relays. Later we put on our suits & lay on the pier for a sun bath.
The children had glorious time - Ellen is actually beginning to swim! Lunch & more sun baths - the children & Pete & Bill fishing. Hughie & I explored the woods - o - then it began to rain. Lots of callers, the Beavers, & some Hesses & children. Late supper & in wallat Austin Frost, David Todes, Phil Ray & Sis Curtis, Ann Dale & Dixie Harvey. Phil's car in ditch & while they were getting it out - Sis, Jo, K. & I had some bridge. Then we played games & jokes with water. Rice

Sunday, July 21, 1935

Everyone slept till 8 - then I got up & helped K. with children breakfast. The men went to fix Pete's car which got broken yesterday. Phil's last night. We had another sun bath & Hugie & I held out the lounge. Then we played in water with children. Some of these children are just plain brats. Finally the car was fixed & the good children dinner cooked. The Fred Warner & children arrived before the boys had the dishes washed. And it began to rain again. Children had boxing matches - Ellen good at it. This a good sport. After supper we closed up the house & everyone left. Timie slept all way home. He & I went to bed, too.

Monday, July 22, 1935

I sweated more over a big washing today than I did taking the sun bath yesterday. Washed children's objects, too. After lunch all 3 went to quilt so I took a nice long nap until Ma came. We sat on porch & I told her about our trip, and showed her the skirt of her sweater which she likes. After she left I wrote up my diary, picked flowers and straightened up in general. At supper time Hugie was talking longingly of Cole Bros, Clyde Beatty circus in York Haven, so Ed again willing, we up & went & had a very nice evening, just the two of us. Good circus, after I can't get a pick out of Clyde.

Tuesday, July 23, 1935

Made a pair of pants to Niles's yellow skirt and a blouse for another and in the afternoon I took them down to Ma's to put the finishing touches on. Henry & Ellen went out to the wid-owson's camp for the afternoon, but Niles went with me. Martha came to Ma's, too, & Dad gave us sherry to eat with our cake.
We had a nice little party.
Martha gave me a lovely new silk nightie because I bought her old ones at the Quinnage sale! I went with Hugie to bring children home.
After supper he read to me while I sewed & then we wrote a joint letter to Heine.

Wednesday, July 24, 1935

It's been raining off & on since Sunday. a crowd of children arrived so I sent them to play in Heine's side! I had quite a lot of ironing to do today.
After lunch I took all the kitchen cans & boxes out to Heine's back porch & painted them - had enough paint (from sample fair) to do the chairs & stool too. Niles helped me several times. The others were across the street fortunately. It was hot & sticky.
After supper Hugie took Dad to a party at Mr. Dorworth's - until two A. M. I sorted pictures for a scrap book for Ellen tomorrow & then read the Poets until cooled off enough to sleep.

Ellen's Birthday - ?

Thursday, July 25, 1935

We watched the sky all morning to see if it would clear but it rained. I did some mending. At lunch time it cleared! Evagran & I rushed to make sandwiches & by two Hegie took me, Henry, Ellen, Dede & Jane to Kanthaus. The river was so swollen & muddy we hardly knew it. We played in water on Ellen's raft her Daddy gave her & took boat rides & had a lot of fun. Then we ate our supper and took a walk along the path by the river. On the way home Dede, Hegie & I sang in great harmony. Evagran put them to bed while Hegie & I went to see J. Crawford & P. ... in "No More Ladies" - very good!

Friday, July 26, 1935

A beautiful sunny day at last, and at last I got my blankets washed. After lunch I put the beautiful boxes back in the kitchen and finally took Mike down to see Ma & Granddad - altho not much of .. (the children make him nervous) and the whole mob including Jane came down there before long. Hegie playing golf with ... (he promised to be home early) so I got the children's supper & was eating shredded ... when in walked Hegie! My Dede was glad to see her we got her some supper and I seemed to have a great deal to tell her. Hegie came early & joined the conversation. o

Saturday, July 27, 1935

Heinie & I had breakfast together & sat & talked about her leaving town & going into library work seriously. Then I did some washing including the last of the blankets. After lunch Heinie had some ironing so I took my old bathing suit over there to rip. Ma came & we finally went out on the back porch - I had on my bathing suit but did not get much of a sun bath. Heinie has all her meals here. Mrs. Sedlow came in for a few minutes & then John Curtis Sr. came for a game of bridge with Heinie, Huguie & me. He had a lot of fun. He's nice yesterday afternoon Henry went to Widdowson's camp so Jane came to spend the night in his bed. She & Ellen woke at 5! I went to church at 8 with Ma. Did a few chores - picked flowers & then sat on the front porch with Heinie, knitting. Huguie made us cocktails & after a big dinner I got so sleepy I took a nap. So did Mike. It rained, too - but later Mike & I went down to see Ma & Dad. Jane came to supper & they ate in play house. Henry came later - he had gotten home sick! I was glad to have him home. ^{Charles} took Heinie at 8. I read

Sunday, July 28, 1935

Monday, July 29, 1935

Another big washing and then I went down town with Ma. Ruth Kipple is working for her again! After lunch Mike & I sat on front porch writing for Martha, but she was so late I got in a little nap first. We knitted & had tea & gossip. Later I walked to the P.O. with her. After supper I was starting to dye a blouse when in walked Dad & Ma & Beau! He had driven from N. Y. quite unexpected! He brought soap for the children, so they were late to bed. When they left I ironed & Hugie worked in kitchen too.

Tuesday, July 30, 1935

Did some mending and washed some of my own things. After lunch it was so quiet that I took a little nap & was wakened by the arrival of Ma. We sat on the porch with our knitting. At four thirty Hugie took me to the club for some golf, but I didn't do as well as when I was at the cabin. I don't believe I'm the makings of a golfer, but Hugie is sweet and encouraging. Evagran had supper for us at 7:30 after we had had a high ball at the club. We read. Hugie dropped box of bottles on front steps - such a clatter!

Wednesday, July 31, 1935

I worked on myself to become more beautiful! Then I did some ironing and got nice & hot. After lunch I got all dressed up & went to Betty & Mary Hanney's very large bridge party. In spite of the heat I had good cards & enjoyed it. Rushed home to put on my bathing suit to go with Hegie to the Pleasant Gap pool where we met so others as a surprise party for Peggy Warner. We went to her house for supper. We had a lot to drink & I told John Love he'd better look out if he wants to be judge! The party ended with a session of dirty jokes. 40

Thursday, August 1, 1935

I tried Jim to have the Reading class as Mr. Craig is sick! So I hustled about, arranged flowers, etc. Going to Hegie's for a chair I found it so cool in her closed house that I decided to have the girls go over there. Mike stayed with us a lot & was good & cute. I gave them iced tea & tomatoes & bacon, & cucumber sandwiches. The book "How in November" by Josephine is quite miniature. Martha stayed after ward to talk over last night's farces. After supper Hegie to help untangle the thread & Bo came in & was sent to work too.

Friday, August 2, 1935

Did some washing and fooled around until time to get dressed to go to Martha's bridge luncheon in honor of Grace, at the Tallyrand. The eating part was very nice - I sat at the other end of the table from Grace - Lucile Gru & Sarah Hastings. But it was hot playing bridge & I got poor cards - I won the booty prize - a lovely silk shirt. I went to see her until supper time as I haven't seen her for so long. After supper Hugie & I sat on porch - well - came with Flit to ward off mosquitoes & Pete joined us - later Jo & Sarah Ray. Hugie & balls.

Saturday, August 3, 1935

Slept late & while I was dressing Grace came to ask us to dinner! But she didn't want Heinie & I'm having Bo & Heinie to dinner. Bo came later & I sat on porch with him until Hugie came to take us all to see the parade. After lunch we got Bo again & he bought our tickets, peanuts & every thing else at Downie Bro's. circus. It was a very good circus - Mike's first & he enjoyed it - so did Bo Heinie arrived just in time for our dinner. Hugie Bo & Hugie took children in circus & got another whiff for Henry. And later Bo, Hugie & Heinie went out again to see the parade. I went to and

Sunday, August 4, 1935

Went to early church with Ma. After I had made beds & picked flowers I sat on the porch & read to Henry who is tired after so much circus. Heine had dinner with us. Then Bo took Ma, the children & me for a nice ride in our car. we got ice cream cones. We went to see Granddad afterward. I started the blue cotton skirt for Ma & knit for me my old bathing suit. After supper I went with Hugie down to Ma's again until it was time for Heine to go to State College.

Monday, August 5, 1935

A beautiful clear day. I did a lot of washing and then felt very weary. I hope there's nothing wrong with my innards. Took a little rest after lunch & then figured out all my bills. Not so bad this month. Also wrote up diary. Gave the children a big tea & got their supper ready. Then Bo took Dad & Henry & Ellen & me to see Hugie play in the donkey baseball game. It was a scream! Hugie's donkey even bit him! Ma kept hiker, much to his anger. I got supper at 7:30 as W. went to game, too. Hugie went to meeting. Bo came in for a while.

Tuesday, August 6, 1935

Nice sunny day, so we planned to go on a picnic to celebrate Hugie's birthday. I did some washing & then it clouded over & we didn't know what to do. Bo came to lunch to be ready early to go, but we did not go! He went home w/pt Martha & Katherine Wolfe to come with their knitting.
 Later Hugie brought Bo & gave us all high balls instead of tea - Martha felt it in her pants & we had a lot of fun. At supper time we planned a party to Spy-top & had quite a crowd before we realized it! Bo & Sam Ray, Pete, Cat, John & Sis Curtin & Marcia & Mrs. Baker !! A conglomerate crew but we had lots of fun, Bo & Sarah drank too much.

Wednesday, August 7, 1935

Hugie & I late getting up & Bo, of all people wallow in while I was break fasting!! Another raining day, so no picnic for Hugie's birth day. I went down town to pay bills & bought an ice cream freezer for Hugie's birth day present!! Bo & Ma gave him carton of cigarettes After lunch Hugie took child me to Fisherman's Paradise on business & then to County Club & golf until it rained too hard. So we went in club & had high balls & the child ice cream. Then Hugie & I went to college to supper - I was again stayed again, altho she refused at first! We took Heinnie & the Deerthomes to movies -
"The Blue Bird" "Fine

Thursday, August 8, 1935

Still raining and still no picnic. But I had my washing to do - my washing I have always with me, rain or shine. In the afternoon I read "Anchor Men" by Fanny Henslip. In the Post until Bo & Ma came. They watched me trying to unravel one ball of thread (double) into two balls until finally Jan joined us on the porch & she helped me with the nasty job.

I'm going to make a dress out of the bathing suit I kind last year! Later I went down to fix the church - this is my month on altar Guild. Ev. again had "off" & I made sandwiches for Hugie & me. ^{Red} read aloud to me. ^{early}

Was busy winding the thread from my bathing suit into hanks to wash when Betty Gost & Stuart, Jr. arrived. She quaked as much as ever. After lunch I took the car & went to the college to get Heinie & bought Janet along as we were due at the Reading Club at Mary Craig. Heinie & Betty Gost came there in time to eat, and Betty invited us to Bloomsburg again - dead silence! - then we all accepted! Heinie went back with Janet to college to dinner - doggone her! Hugie & I went to Rudy Fred's to dinner. Martha & Jan there, too - ^{Jan} Grace did all the talking - ^{amusing} ^{columns}

Saturday, August 10, 1935

Did my wooling and other chores. After lunch Heinie & I sat on the porch - she telling me of her plans for the future - I starting to knit blue bathing suit into blue dress. Finally Ma & Bo strolled in and after while I made orangeade as it was awfully hot. We are invited to a beer party at Austin Furst's cabin but we don't want to go. Why does he invite us when we are so much older? We went down to see Dad for a while. sat on the porch. & Dad had Bo get some bottles of beer. Nice quiet evening.

Sunday, August 11, 1935

Went to church at 8 A.M. Wagon had day off. Ellen started breakfast & I made toast after I got home from church. Hugie with a great deal of fussing, made ice cream in his new freezer, which we took with us when we went to Ma's to dinner - it was right good! Hugie golfed & Bo took Ma, Heinie & me & the children for a ride. We visited Dad when we got back. Bo came here to supper & Hugie didn't come for it until after 8! He was mixed up with drinks! Ann Dale & Phil Ray also mixed - came in later.

Monday, August 12, 1935

Did a big washing, interrupted by a man ~~selling~~ buying gold. I sold him some bangles & Aunt Kelly's watch case! over $16!

I went to lunch at Gail's with Martha & Katharine Wolfe. We chatted & chatted until five o'clock - my nice time.

I had to call Betty Galt in Bloomington & tell her we can't come! - I hope she doesn't ask us soon again - it's too much trouble for what it's worth. In the evening Hugie & I were reading when Ma & Bea came to call. I wish Dad could come too - or rather would.

Beautiful morning - washed & planned picnic & then a thunderstorm came!

But after lunch we went anyway - to Kanhans & the sun came out so I predicted & we had a wonderful time - Hugie, Kevin, Bo, Henry Ellen & I hired a boat & went way up the river, Bo & Hugie rowing in turn & sweating out the beer!

It was late before we ~~left~~ about coming home & the bridge club was already assembled here when we arrived! Eva-gan had fixed ~~something~~ & cake for us. I was very ~~happy~~ from day in sun!

Wednesday, August 14, 1935

Alan came to call in the morning - I went right on with my ironing. In the afternoon I went to the club to a card party in benefit of Woman's Club. It was quite nice & I won some "bankies". Our club played together. I invited Martha & Katherine to dinner when John & Hugie appeared at club to golf till late. We knitted for a while & when they had to leave they dropped me at Ma's. Bo walked home with me later, telling of how hard Daddy is to get on with these days. Hugie came home at 3:30 A.M. I was all upset, feel sick & feverish & longed for Hugie to comfort me.

Thursday, August 15, 1935

Felt like the discus in the morning. Have a burning in an unmentionable place! Managed somehow to do my washing. And after lunch Hugie took me to Dr. Parrish (Hoffman away) I have sis titis, or inflammation of the bladder! Felt quite important when I told the girls at Reading club of my ailment. We were at Deborah's, & I couldn't do justice to the awfully good refreshments. Then I wrote with Hugie Bo & Heini to Aunt Dorothy's birthday party. I should have stayed home. I couldn't smile but Bo & Hugie did & didn't want to come home!

Friday, August 16, 1935

I stayed in bed until lunch time - such luxury! but I slept most of the time & so could not fully appreciate it! I feel awful. After lunch I read for a while and then went down to see Ma & Dad, Mike went, too, of course & made Dad nervous. He drove us home later & we stopped at the school commons to see Hugie playing in a baseball game. He made a run. For supper was late on account of the game. We read and retired to bed early but got into argument about kissing - I didn't like his kissing Mrs. Hoover - disgusting. nor yet Mabel.

Saturday, August 17, 1935

Slept as late as I could and still get my work done. After lunch I took a nap - the doctor said to rest - & then went over to Heinie's with my knitting & advised her as to what to pack to take to Maui's. And she found some sun bonnets for us to wear tonight. I got Beau to come to supper as it was such a nice one. We were expecting Pete Shaffer - he is away - but he never turned up. So Hugie took Heinie & me, all dressed up like farmers, to the Ray Holls barn dance. It was lots of fun, except some were so stupid at the steps.

Sunday, August 18, 1935

Went to early church and got back in time to say good-bye to Bo & Heenie pulling out for N. J. in the chevy. Went to church again at 11 with Huguie. We were home to dinner, a very nice one, planned for Pete who again never turned up - he didn't come home this week - end. I took a nap & then Mike & I went down to console Ma for the loss of Bo. It was too hot & I too tried to take her for a ride. Huguie & I had supper alone, at a reasonable hour this week. We read the news papers and all peaceful & domestic went to bed.

Monday, August 19, 1935

I feel burn and had to drag myself to work.
After lunch Mike & I both fell asleep on the davenport and later went down to Ma's.
This sistitis is terrible.
I can't drink any thing, nor eat my favorite foods like tomatoes & peaches. And Dr. Parvish pills don't seem to do much good - I wish Dr. Hoffman were attending to me. The only bright spot on the horizon is the arrival of Kate Lutz tomorrow.
She is on a business trip with her father to Alvinstown. ^{at Alvinstown}

Tuesday, August 20, 1935

Do feel better today! Did some washing and enthusiastically got Heinie's back room ready for Kitty. After lunch I took a little nap before time for her to arrive. She is the same dear old Kate & I was so glad to see her. We sat on the porch, talking & talking & then went down to see Ma & Dad for a short while. Hugie playing baseball so we had a late cold supper. Called up John & Martha & Cat to come to see Kate which they did & we had an amusing evening. Betty Ray phoned to know if she could come to visit Heinie.

Wednesday, August 21, 1935

Kate & I had breakfast together & she helped me make the beds. She admired the children & their clothes etc. which I have made. We went down town to buy presents for Janet Dickinson & after lunch Kate helped me trim Heinie's wagon & get them, Ellen, Mary & Mike off to the circus party. Then Kate & I talked in peace until she had to leave. I had to hustle around & get out bassinet, etc for the arrival of Betty Ray, baby & husband. Had them here to supper but they went to their room early & I went to see Ma & Dad. Hugie came down there for me.

Thursday, August 22, 1935

The doctor sent word that I had to start those horrible red pills again. I did some washing but spent most of the morning next door looking at the cute baby Judy. In the afternoon I went to Peggy Warner's & the Reading club. We are now trying to read "Tanity Fair" but it's not much more popular than the modern novels. In the evening I had the unique sensation of being asked to "mind a baby" - the Griffins next door went out! Hugie & I read - none of the young woke up. Betty & Ted came in here later - I wonder what Nellie will ^{say when she} finds them ^{here}

Friday, August 23, 1935

Slept late and did some washing. At noon we decided to go to the country club tonight. I mended a dress, ironed and then took Mike down to Mrs. Poor Mike has a cut over his eyebrow and another on the back of his head from falling down the front steps. We stayed at Mrs. till supper time. I got the child dress's supper & wagon came at 7 to get ours! Hugie was ~~hanging~~ Pete had supper with us a poor one after the one I planned last week. Then Hugie & I left our clothes at the club & went on to Austin's first cabin to a beer party. Had my spitting. To bed at the club! O

Saturday, August 24, 1935

Funny to wake up in the club in a big bed with Hugie! - at 9:30, to! Gene gave us a nice fried egg & bacon breakfast & then we went out in the glorious sun to play golf. I did very badly. After lunch we watched the golfers teeing up and then we put on our bathing suits & went to the Park for a swim. Found a sunny spot out of the wind & lay there lazily. We are having such a good time!
A high ball before supper.
We walked, examining all the cottages along the lake & called on the walkers in their nice new ones. Then we went to the Park to dance. Good floor show

Sunday, August 25, 1935

Again we slept long & beautifully and played golf after breakfast. Charlie had Emily there to dinner & then he & Hugie played golf & left me to sit with Emily under the big maple tree.
I was wishing I could play golf well enough to play with Cat & Gen. Betty Ray & Becca Doworth & some others joined us later which was more interesting. We ate our supper with the Mac Artairs, Glen C. & the Hedges & that was a great lot of fun. But they left soon so Hugie & I took a canoe out on the dark lake for over an hour. Home by way of golf course - o - ^{night} ~~club~~ with

Monday, August 26, 1935

Hugie & I hated to get up on this our last morning of our little holiday. But we were up later than usual in order to get a game of golf (Din improved a little) and a swim before packing up to go home to lunch. Nice to see the children however & Evagcan seemed to have done beautifully. I put things in order in the afternoon & Ma came to see me & we hunted on the porch & I told her of our good time. Betty & Sarah Ray joined me later. Hugie went to play baseball & Evagcan got supper for us at 7:30!
Pete had supper with us - a good one at last! He left early & Hugie & I read & were happy.

Tuesday, August 27, 1935

Evagcan has gone for the rest of the week to the Grangers Picnic! So I got breakfast washed a lot of clothes - twice of course! Wrote his bed, scrubbed the garbage cans which needed it and got lunch! Quite a busy morning for me. Ellen helped me with the dishes.
I did a little mending and then took Mike down to Ma's. Dad was in a bad humor & went in the house & later sent for me to go in & talk to him. He's getting to be a terrible,rotchety old man. Hugie played baseball again so we just ate shredded wheat at 8.
We read & went to bed.

Wednesday, August 28, 1935

Ellen is a great help - she can squeeze orange juice! after breakfast dishes were done I cleaned the whole house with a vigor, and made very good b. powder biscuits for lunch. But I took a little nap until Ma arrived with her knitting & we sat on porch. I got letter from Bo with a check for $1.35 which he got selling the silver! Betty Ray & her cute baby joined us. I cooked a real supper for Hugie tonight & after we had the dishes washed we saw William Powell & Luise Rainer (new actress) in "Escapade". Good story about artist in Vienna

Thursday, August 29, 1935

Jane came early to see Ellen & so they both helped me with the dishes. I put the house in order & did a big washing which I had to finish after lunch. I don't see how Evaglean gets everything done. Ma came to stay here with the children while I went to Winifred's to the Reading class. Late enough there so I didn't have to eat any supper as Hugie is at the club. Later Heinie & I went over to Cato's to play bridge with Peggy & her friend Mrs. Hall. It was mostly gossip, & I home at 12. Hugie at 11:30

Stayed in bed as long as I could while Ellen started breakfast. Didn't do any more work than I could get by with and Hugie gave me a cocktail before lunch. In the afternoon dear old Ma came trudging up the hill again and hemmed a skirt for me. I am so worried about her feet getting arthritis - it just seems too much. I started knitting the blouse of the bathing suit thread. Hugie went to play baseball again and we ate sliced wheat when he finally came home. We read & went to bed very early. It is getting awfully cold.

Saturday, August 31, 1935

Ellen was a great help to me this morning - she dried the dishes & scrubbed the bathroom. Henry went on the nap with the sweeper. I napped & dusted & got lunch ready. In the afternoon I took a nice long nap after punishing Hubie for gallying on the front steps - he gets worse that way - wet his bed nearly every night. Went over to Henrie's for a while after my nap & then wrote in my neglected diary before cooling supper. Ellen fell off the trap-eze & skinned her forehead. Henrie, Hugie & I went to bridge party at Martha's for Rachel &

Sunday, September 1, 1935

Did not go to church but got breakfast, - made the beds all fresh, etc and scrubbed the kitchen floor! Not such a hard task as I expected.

Then we got all dressed up & went to Ma's to a big square meal at last! And we ate as if we really had been starved all week. We took family picture as Augie didn't play golf. Instead he took Mar- us for a ride - to the airfield to see a big plane and at 5 he & I went to Dr. & Mrs. Bible's 50th wedding anniversary party. Very nice. We had supper next door with Heinie & Betty. Read the paper - went to bed early.

Monday, September 2, 1935

Augie built a fire in the furnace today, it's so cold. Then he had to go to golf tournament in the rain.

I did my chores as usual. After lunch I helped Evagren with the dishes as it didn't seem natural not to do this.

Then I fixed my toenails, dressed & went over to Heinie's. She had a nice tea party and Julie made a great hit with the ladies. Augie came home at supper time after being beaten by Ray Miller - poor Augie, I wish he were still the champ - for his sales. Later we went to the Shuff for cocktails before going to the club to a nice dance. They teased us about jokes about Tall man & short girl. O.

Tuesday, September 3, 1935

Slept late and was late finishing my washing. Found Lillian Shefferlock on the porch when I came down to lunch. She came in & stayed till after tea altho she had had her lunch. I enjoyed talking to her. Then I got Cat & Love to come over with her knitting as it is a rainy gloomy, lonesome day. We had tea & Hugie came home early. I made a pillow case for Ellen as she is on her last one. But I wanted to knit. After supper I put the children to bed & then went down to call on Ma & Dad. Hugie came too, when Heinie got home

Wednesday, September 4, 1935

Another rainy day! I did quite a bit of ironing - the Altan cloth, etc. and then got ready to go with Mary Craig to the club to Pussie's very nice luncheon. We were to have golfed, but on account of the rain we played bridge, six or eight tables of 4. Found an empty house when I got home, but one by one they came in - Henry & Ellen had been to the movies - Mike with Evagran. After supper I read to the children till their bed time & then read my Post serial and then knitted while Hugie talks of this year's knitting class.

Thursday, September 5, 1935

Poor Ellen was seasick twice during the night! And Hugie doesn't feel any too well. There seems to be something going around due to this unseasonal weather. But Ellen seemed to feel fine in the day. I did my chores as usual and after lunch Kate & I walked out to Nell Wallis' who kindly entertained the Reading club. We did more talking than reading - "Vanity Fair" is rather tedious. Found Hugie here on my return - had expected him to be at club. so we ate shredded wheat & he went to bed early while I stretched on down.

Friday, September 6, 1935

Hugie is feeling better, thank goodness. I did my work in a hurry & then went down town with Ma. After lunch I went to the club with Pussy, Cat & Mrs. Hall (Jane). Jane & I played golf together & had a lot of fun so we were about the same speed. We all stopped at Dotie Brinstrokes on the way home for tea. Then I came home to be ready for my dinner party - Helene, Kate & Cat (I had invited Sis). After a nice dinner Ted Griffin arrived so we raised Betty & got her to make the fourth at bridge. When Hugie came at 11 P.M.

Saturday, September 7, 1935

Usual Sat. morning does.
Have started a paying system with the children for their manners, instead of an allowance. In the afternoon Ma came with some stitching for me to do on the machine & then we sat on the porch & Aunt Maud came - she arrived yesterday. She & Ma talked but I enjoyed seeing her. After supper we had a party here instead of going to Austin Junt cabin - the Shufflers, Siigs, Griffins, Heine & Phil & Ned Ray. We drank beer & high balls, talked politics and some of us played cards. It was fun.

Rating & Ted left today - and Sunday, September 8, 1935 Judy!

Got up to go to early church but went back to bed!
After breakfast I made ice cream & then went to 11 o'clock church with Hugie. Stopped to see Gen en way home. Made the beds before dinner. We had dinner alone & then Hugie went to golf & I fell asleep. At 3 o'clock & Henry & I got Ma & took our favorite drive thru Howard & Yarnall. Ellen & Jane stayed with Heine. Hugie phoned he'd stay at the club so Heine & I ate shredded wheat & read the newspapers. Hugie finally came in spite of my fears of his being with deacons.

Monday, September 9, 1935

Did a big washing in spite of the gloomy weather. In the afternoon I got Martha to come as it was too bad for Ma. I darned bath towels on the machine until she got here & then I worked on Ellen's pillow case & made tea. We have not had an afternoon together for some time and I certainly enjoyed it. I got another pretty dress for Ellen from Kitty's old. After supper I went to the Aux. meeting at Mrs. Richards and we were full of plans to earn money - Oh dear. Then I called on Aunt M. Grace & Jack F. & Hugie ^{rose} came ^{later} for me.

Tuesday, September 10, 1935

Niles went to his bed again last night - just when I thought I'd have no washing. I did my ironing today, too, as poor Niles has no suit to wear - he has very few left. It is cold today - winter is coming. In the afternoon Ma came & we did some mending. Then she went to take a drive with Aunt M. and I started baby shoes for Ellen's birthday. They are easy. After supper poor Hugie took me & Heenie, Grace & Aunt Maud to the college to see Katharine's stepson in "Alice Adams" - it was good - then Aunt M. treated us all to sodas. Good time!

Wednesday, September 11, 1935

Did my chores in a hurry and went down town with Mike to buy some winter clothes for Henry. After lunch I washed & dyed Henry's striped sweater & Ellen's knit skirt & was sitting in the kitchen shelling lima beans & stirring dye when Ma came. She helped me with the beans & then we sat on the porch with our knitting. Soon she went driving with Aunt M. & I finished dyeing Mr. Sudlow & Heinie came to supper & we played bridge afterward. Mrs. S. is away. He is such a nice ingenious sort of person but not very interesting. O.

Thursday, September 12, 1935

Washed my hair with Jo's shampoo - it certainly is nice. Sat in the sun on the upper porch all morning darning. After lunch I took a dress I mended years ago & never could sell, to Dotie Brinkstock & she bought it! 3 bucks.
Then I went to Grace's to the Reading Club. We sat on the side porch & I kept seeing Aunt Louise with her cute little short legs in those big chairs. We started "North to the Orient" by Ann Lindbergh - a splendid story. After supper I went to Wis-Red's to play bridge with her & Gen & Mrs. Martin. Not as much fun as I had hoped.

Friday, September 13, 1935

Did a large washing keeping an eye on Mike & Barbara Robsey in the yard - I wish he had some nice toys to play with.
In the afternoon Ma
came & we sat on the porch knitting. Aunt Ma came, too, bringing a coat fur jacket for me & a new with evening clothes. But I had to leave them later when Hugie came to take Mike & me with him on a lovely business drive.
After supper I went to a church meeting about a dinner - not enough there, so Hugie & I went to see Clark Gable in "Call of the Wild" not so good - but we had fun.

Before the Parks we went to the Jimmie Hurst Sewell Song
Saturday, September 14, 1935
there, both very light!

Evagau has today off so I got breakfast and cleaned up & did a little ironing before cooking quite a nice lunch. In the afternoon Ma came & Heine joined us on the front porch - no Aunt M. but she was playing bridge - Grace didn't ask me - I guess I don't play well enough. I made an oyster stew for sup & we ate so much of it that we couldn't eat the rest of it - kept apple sauce, later sitting on kitchen table! Heine was home & at 9:30 we got Pete & Jo & went to the Parks to dance! We had a lot of fun.

Sunday, September 15, 1935

Slept too late for church again! Eva Jean back after her holiday so I went to church at eleven. The children went to Sunday School & seemed to like it. Ma & Dad came here to dinner. Dad was feeling fine and had a nice time. When he went home I took Ma, Heinie the 3 children & Aunt Maud for a nice long drive thru Yarnall & Howard (where we got ice cream cones) It is a gorgeous day. Heinie had supper with us & then we all read the Sunday papers & went to bed early. Heigie thinks he has a cold.

Monday, September 16, 1935

Nice bright day and everything O.K. Washed and attended to my duties. In the afternoon I took my quilting to the back porch where Martha joined me. Martha came too, & I put the Pettie on and just as we finished tea Dottie Brigstocke arrived with her two children. There were dozens of children here already. Ma left - more tea & mended a dress. Dottie sewed for Dottie. (had to, as she brought new one) After supper Cat Lane came over to play bridge - we are going to play every week to win some Heigie's game. He & Cat beat Heinie.

Tuesday, September 17, 1935

Dressed & mended and went down town in the afternoon Ma and Aunt Maud came up and I made tea. It was cold & rainy so we sat in doors. Hilke was not of a pest & the other two came noisily home from school & forgot all my instructions about speaking politely to Aunt M. This is one of the days when I don't like children. In the evening Hugie was out and I curled up on theavenport & read Pops by the dozen. I must find time to read something good.

Wednesday, September 18, 1935

Did my chores and went to the dentist at eleven, walking home with Hugie - it was not as bad as I thought - the dentist, I mean. In the afternoon Mike & I went down to see Ma & Dad, but came home early - Mike makes Daddy nervous. Ellen is deaf again from a cold & I am discouraged. That was why we had her towels taken out. I suppose we will have another winter of colds & sickness just like last. Hugie had the papers & I skittled and listened to radio.

Thursday, September 19, 1935

Attended to my chores & went down town. In the afternoon I went to the Reading club at Martha's which was very nice as usual at Martha's. I finished my fourth pair of booties - these for the Church bazaar. Anne Lindbergh's book is very interesting. I read part of the third - easy to read, no big words to twist my tongue. After supper Hugie & I went down to call on Ma & Dad. He does not seem very well. Just sits & doesn't seem to care whether we are there or not - or else, he scolds Ma about nothing.

Friday, September 20, 1935

Did a pile of mending when Doro was not making peace between Tula & Philip. Was glad when it was time to go to Grace's to lunch with Aunt Ned, Uncle Ted & Martha. The four women played bridge afterward & Martha & I beat Aunt M. & Grace. It was quite thrilling! I also asked Uncle F. if he wanted his old baby carriage again & he said yes!! After supper Hugie took Heenie, Cat & me & John Curtis & Charley to the Blue & White Inn opening at Potter's hills. Not much in the way of dancing so we went to Sky - bunch of us.

Saturday, September 21, 1935

Attended to my household ✓ then marched down the street to Uncle Fred's with the baby carriage, stopping to tell Moony, Cat, Beeky & Glen on the way & having a lot of fun out of it. I had lunch over at Heinnie's with Janet & Mrs. Gauger who was Heinnie's teacher at the college. They went to the school & Janet & I sat on the porch & had a very nice intimate talk - about Grace & the fight she & I once had, etc. I was sorry when she had to go.
In the evening Hugie & I read & went to bed early after our night of dissipation last night.

Sunday, September 22, 1935

Went to church at eight Aunt Maud was there. Hugie went off at the same time with Dr. Adams to Hollisdaishburg to see some field trials. I went to church again at eleven and sang in the choir! Had lunch all alone with the children and afterward Henry Hicks & I took Aunt Maud for a nice ride to the Moshannon dam. Mother stayed with Daddy who is not feeling at all well. Hugie home for supper - Heinnie here too & then we read the Sunday papers and listened to Hugie's dog stories. He is interesting.

Monday, September 23, 1935

Before I had got started on the week, Aunt Maud dropt in. She was taking a walk & it was such a lovely day I slept a coat over my old gingham & went with her & did enjoy it. So after lunch I had to do the washing. Ma did not come up so Dad is not feeling well. He has a sort of grippy cold. poor old Dad. After supper Huggie stayed with children while I went to Mrs. Sudlow's meeting of St. Mary's Guild. I tried to inspire them with plans to earn money but they want it to fall in their laps. They Did my ironing and went down town. In the afternoon Martha came & it was warm enough to sit on the front porch. Stewart Conyell dropt in and was his usual half-witted self. I asked him to stay to dinner, as usual, and to my surprise he accepted so we had quite a dinner party with Aunt Maud, & Huggie. It was very nice. Then we listened on the radio to Joe Louis knock out Max Baer. Aunt left & the four of us played bridge & Huggie seemed to enjoy it!

Wednesday, September 25, 1935

Made my beds & ordered meals & then went to the dentist for the rest of the morning - had teeth cleaned, too. At one o'clock I went to Geo's to a very nice luncheon for Aunt M. Grace made the fourth, & bridge which we played afterward. I walked home with Aunt Maud afterward to see Dad - he was sitting on the porch & seemed about as usual to me - teasing Aunt M. about her red finger nails. In the evening Hugie read to me while I knitted. He is such a nice comfortable kind of husband.

I slept late and took life easy when I did get up. In the afternoon I went to Geo's to the Reading Club - we sat on the porch & Geo gave me a red corded ray coat when I got chilly. We finished the Lindbergh book and were all sorry. After supper Hugie & I went down to call on Aunt Maud, to say good-bye as she is leaving tomorrow. The Finks & Uncle Fred & Grace were there so it was not very satisfactory. Altho Henry Finn is always very amusing. Geo isn't.

Friday, September 27, 1935

Slept late again. Ma called me up on a surprising piece of news - Phil Reynolds is going to be married!! Kate Bassett, a Chicago girl. Dad had a letter from him. Heine came to lunch - it is her birthday. Later Mike & I were peacefully sitting in the living room - rainy day - when Hugie came home & went to bed! Shades of last winter. But he doesn't feel so badly - just a cold & insisted on my going to Janet's wedding anniversary party - it was a large affair & I didn't enjoy it much in spite of wearing the new blue jacket.

Saturday, September 28, 1935

Hugie stayed in bed and when I had done my washing I sat with him, darning & tocking. In the afternoon I was with him when I got inspired to make a pastel sketch of him and he patiently assented. It turned out to be very good, and I was in heaven while doing it - I love it - but why don't I do it more often. Ma phoned that Dad is in bed, too - so is John Loe & Pete Sheffer! After supper Heine & I played rum with Hugie until ten o'clock when we were all glad to turn in.

Sunday, September 29, 1935

went to church at eight and again later I went in the choir. I walked from church over to see Ma + Daddy. When I got home Hugie had got ^{up} + came downstairs to dinner. I had planned to do another picture of him but it's a dark day and anyway he was bending over his stamps. So I amused myself with the papers. Ma + Fawcett dropt in for a minute.
She wouldn't let Fawcett play with Jack. Heirini here to supper and then I beat her and Hugie at nunn. Hugie seems to feel all right again.

19

A. M. as usual. When I had my work done I wrote to Bo to send him a clipping of a drunken man standing on his head.
And to Phil, congratulating him. Gen came in the afternoon + we sat on back porch in the sun. I couldn't help telling her about Phil + later Ma + Fawcett came + I admitted telling Gen + boy, Ma got mad! She is tired these days, taking care of Dad. In the evening I took Heirini Cat, R. Seig + me to college - first we called on Blair's new house + then saw Fred Estaire + Ginger Rogers in "The Hat" - it was marvelous.

Tuesday, October 1, 1935

went to the dentist again today. for the last time, thank goodness, for this year anyway. Took my notices around to the news papers for the baby show. In the afternoon took a nap and finally started making numbers for the baby show. Ellen came home from school & helped me put the strings in them to tie them around the babies' necks. She was very cute & helpful - she is so nice when alone. After supper I rushed to the church basement to do practice & then went over to see Ma & Dad for a little while before coming home. He is same as always.

Wednesday, October 2, 1935

Spent the morning doing washing and ironing dresses for prizes for the baby show and in the afternoon I worked on rosettes of red ribbon for the second winner. It's a cold dismal day and I was all alone with Nuko who was asking questions constantly & the rosettes were hard to make. I was glad when Luigi wiped me a cocktail before supper. He stayed with children while I took Gen Skinnie, K. Sieg and Jo up to the college to see Greta Garbo in "Anna Karenina" Marvelous. Dads afternoon Phil's wedding day.

Thursday, October 3, 1935

Did a large washing and a lot of thinking about the Baby Show! people are calling up all the time to enter their babies. In the afternoon Grace took me up to the college to Jan's for the Reading Club. We studied "European by Griffault" but I don't think it's so hot - or maybe the room was too hot. But we had good food as always at Jan's. Mary Ann Keller there as guest. After supper Hugie & I went down to see Ma & Dad. I tried on riding breeches & talked to Dad about riding. But he seemed tired and looked so thin and old.

Friday, October 4, 1935

At 9:30 I went with Glen & K. Seig & some others to the Armory to have a riding lesson from Lieut. Roberts. There was but one horse & we had to take turns. After putting wrong foot in stirrup I finally got on & rode better than the others - the only one to go without a halter on the horse. I loved it. When I got back I took bowl of soup to Dad. I didn't see him so he was asleep. Ma seemed quite worried about him - sort of delicious. Spent afternoon tying up prizes, etc. for Baby Show. Went to movies in town with Hugie, Peter & Jo - to see "Dark Angel" with Fred's March. It was good but sad.

Saturday, October 5, 1935

after doing a few chores at home & learning from Ma that Dad was better I went to Parish House & moved furniture to suit my plans for the Baby Show. Right after lunch I went back & got out the dishes & helped wash them until the 8:30 babies began to arrive. As usual, it was hellam & I didn't know whether I was coming or going. But finally it was over and we seemed to have 28 - not as much as before. After supper I was too tired to do anything but sit dully on theavenport. Talked to Ma - she was upsetting me down - Dad

Sunday, October 6, 1935

Phone rang at six - Ma calling to say Daddy had just died. Poor, poor Ma, how my heart ached for her! Hugie & I dressed & got down there before the doctor left. Daddy had asked for his medicine at 4 & gone to sleep - after 5, we heard strange voice & went in to find him unconscious. We called Dr. Corman but before he got there Daddy had stopped breathing. Poor, dear, little Ma. I stayed there all day with her. Hugie sent telegrams & did all kinds of helpful errands. He brought Bo from ~~London~~ at 7 - we all had dinner then & tried to be cheerful. My head aches & my throat feels twice its size. But I am glad Dad is at rest. I am doing

Mamma came to see me after supper Monday, October 7, 1935

Awoke with that heavy feeling & then realized what caused it - Daddy is gone. I can't Daddy who taught me so much & was so good to me.
I went down to Ma's right after breakfast, leaving her fear to do my work - she was sick yesterday & Hattie had to do it - What would I do without Hattie? Hugie & I came home to lunch, then back again. I wrote notes for Ma - fixed her rib-arranged flowers around Daddy - he looks more pleasant now than for a long time.
Home to supper & back again.
Grace & Uncle F. there - there are so many things to be planned. Ma can't think at all

Tuesday, October 8, 1935

Before 9 Hugie drove Ma, Bo to Lancaster. Mr. Harris took the body in the hearse to after we left. A beautiful day, but a long drive. We went to Brunswick & found Aunt Maude, Mai, Fred, Uncle F.
& Grace (seemed funny to her there) Ma, Aunt M. & I had lunch in that room & finally went to church - where Dad used to go so often - lots of flowers, lots of people. I held on to Ma - sort of shaky. Then the awful ordeal of cemetery.
I couldn't help crying. Back to the room - cocktails - Uncle Ed & finally off to Bellefonte. Supper in Harrisburg. Moonlight - all was quiet, but calm. My Ma is wonderful. Goodbye Daddy.

Wednesday, October 9, 1935

Just thought I couldn't get out of bed - tried. But at last I got down & see Ma - she seems pretty well.
Hugie & Bo busy with the will, etc. Home to lunch I have lovely roses here - from Susie & from Tony.
Back to Ma again. I took Mike with me & he & I went down town to get hat, dress, stockings & gloves for Ma and we actually got some that suited her.
She read to Mike & seemed to enjoy him. After supper Heidi & Hugie went to see Ma but I stayed home & wrote to Tony - & Bill Wells about vacuum cleaner - and wrote in this poor neglected book

Thursday, October 10, 1935

got to work on many chores to be done in this house. Winifred came to see me bringing clothes for Harry. After lunch we took family pictures & one of Mike & then I cut his hair & then took another picture. I had known him without his little curls but Hugie is overjoyed. Mike & I went down to Ma's. Bo & I went down town & got the car & took Ma & Mike for a ride to college in the glorious sunshine. Then I wrote notes of acknowledgement for Ma.
Home to supper & put the children to bed. wrote note to Mary Craig & then went to Ma's to write more notes for her.

Friday, October 11, 1935

Did my chores & mending.
Deborah came to see the bringing a suit for Harry! - too big for this year. Then I went down town to do some errands for Ma. In the afternoon Ma & I went down to stay with her while Bo was attending to business matters.
Ellen phoned, crying - Jack & Henry had got in fight & Henry had "met" Jack - not as bad as it sounded. Ellen came down to Ma's too. Daddy had life insurance for me - $5,000.
Feel as if Ma ought to have it but she says not. Mr.
Sullivan called for few minutes after supper. Hugie went to Ma's & I wrote to Fred Patty & Suvie. They all wrote.

Saturday, October 12, 1935

went to market when Hugie went to work. Then did some washing. Beau came in before lunch & we took a picture of him with the children. After lunch I cut out a pair of pyjamas for Ellen & Ma & Beau came & sat with me while I stitched. Heenie got all dressed up to go to Shallos wedding but was back soon, it wasn't so gay. After supper Heenie finally decided she didn't want to go out so I took the pyjamas down to Ma's & made button holes. Beau & Hugie & Towser had a wrestle - Towser is Ma - but such a

Sunday, October 13, 1935

Went to church at 8. I washed & did a number of chores during the morning including washing Elmer's hair. Ma & Beau came to dinner at one. Hugie went for a walk with Jack & Beau took Ma & the children & me for a ride up to Rattlesnake & the Mooshannon Dam. We climbed the fire tower, all except Mike & Ma. I gave the children their supper & put Mike to bed & then Heinie & Hugie & I went to Ma's to supper. At 10:30 Hugie & I took Bo to Tappan & his train. Heinie is going to stay with Ma for a week. My dog Bo & Co.

Monday, October 14, 1935

Did a large washing and went down to Ma's & then on down town. In the afternoon Gen dropped in about some knitting & soon after she left Ma came. It was so nice and we sat on the front porch & I painted a colored vest in a black dress of hers with some strong black dye. It took quite a long time. Finally I used the rest of the dye to dye a pair of mine for Ma. After supper Hugie & Heinie went to a hospital meeting & Ma came up here & helped me mend & cut out more pajamas.

Tuesday, October 15, 1935

Made the bed & did some washing while I put some more of Ma's things to dry.
Then I spent the rest of the morning dyeing and pressing and continuing after lunch until two-thirty when Mike & I took the dresses & stockings down to Ma's & then we took the way out to Reynolds Ave. to a dressmaker to fix Ma's dress.
Jowser went, too & we were tired when we got back to Ma's - Mrs. Sudlow came to call on her After supper Hugie went to Ma's & I wrote letters to Aunt Maud, Billy Appel, Conyello Peg Warner, Lily Beall & Phil.

Wednesday, October 16, 1935

Went to church at 7:30 with Ma - Requiem mass for Daddy.
Then I went home with her for breakfast - Henrie had gone to school. Finally I got home & did some washing & ironing before going down town. After lunch I did a little mending & then Mike & I took Mother to the college to have her hair dressed. Mike & I went shopping for boots for me & winter suit for Ellen.
Then Ma treated to ice cream. After supper I got the children to bed & then read a story in the Post & fell fast asleep on davenport. Hugie went down to Ma's - O.

Thursday, October 17, 1935

Did my work as usual & went down town to see what Bellefonte offered in boots - they don't fit my narrow feet. After lunch Hugie & Mr. Sallow went hunting & I had the car to take Ma & Niles & Henry a ride in the glorious sunshine - the autumn colors were gorgeous. Then we went to the dressmaker & had quite a siege there to make a dress about M. slut look nice on Ma - Ma does it seem to can much how it looks, poor little Ma - After supper Hugie & I went down to Ma's. Heenie was there & we knitted & talked but it is all sad.

Friday, October 18, 1935

At 9:30 I went to the laundry again for a riding coat.
I was afraid the others had got ahead of me in my shoes & blouse, but, not at all, I did as well as they & enjoyed it more I think. We rode in the fields & paths in Armour's Gap. Made the beds, etc. when I got home. After lunch I stitched my jeans & Ma came to help. Heenie dropt in & later Heenie, & we had tea in dining room where I was sewing.
I also dyed Ma's slips & plucked the wood coals for supper. In the evening Pete & Jo came to see us & we knitted & had drinks.

Saturday, October 19, 1935

Hugie went hunting early in the morning so Henry + his wagon went with me to market to pull the things home. I went on with Heenie + bought myself a hat. Then I came home to do my chores. In the afternoon I stitched py-jamas - Hugie eating a late lunch. Ma came + I took my sewing out on the front porch. Heenie is leaving the today. I do hope she will be all right. After supper I wrote notes for Ma to J. Potter, Miss Hunt, Mr. Maynard + Mrs. Keller. Then Hugie read to me while I darned + later he went to see if Ma was O.K.

Sunday, October 20, 1935

Evaguan had the day off so I got breakfast, etc + did some washing before going to Ma's to dinner. Heenie went, too. But Dad's absence was very noticeable. We took some more family pictures with Daddy's camera + then Hugie took us all to Penn's River beyond Coburn. It was marvellous. The road went along the tops of mountains + it was all very exciting. We got home at six and I put Mike to bed. Heenie got supper + Ma had it with us. Then we listened to the radio, etc. Pete came in to talk about hunting. Everyone tired.

Monday, October 21, 1935

We went out early to the Armony for our ride. We rode seven miles thru the country & it was a sunny warm day & wonderful.

Drove "Adelaide"; not so nice as Blackbird last week. Made the beds etc when I got back.

After lunch Mike & I rode down town with Hugie & then walked to Ma's where we sat on the porch, knitting.

I am tired & peepless. Hugie brought Charlie & Mr. Curtin to appraise the furniture.

After supper I fell asleep on theavenport, reading the Post. Hugie was upstairs cleaning guns or something - he went down to see if Ma was O.K. ^{He is nice} ^{that way.}

Tuesday, October 22, 1935

I stayed in bed until after nine and spent the rest of the morning picking four woodcocks.
Hugie & Kiwanis for lunch. Took a little nap.
But couldn't get peppy enough to go down to Ma's - Mike & I sat on front porch - it is warm.
I worked on the birds a little more - Hugie said he would, but he didn't appear. Lots of children milling around after school.
Ma came to supper, Mike too, & we ate the delicious woodcocks. Then Hugie beat us badly at rum-I felt awful, but Ma seemed to enjoy it all.

Wednesday, October 23, 1935

Slept late again. Mike broke an ash tray & got a splinter of glass in his nose. I had an awful time getting it out, with Mike screaming & kicking & Eva Jean trying to hold him. I wrote to Katherine Wolfe & Rachel Place who wrote to me, & to Eliza Steinhilber for Mother. After lunch Mike & I went down to Ma's between showers. We dined, I had cup of tea & then we looked over some things in the attic. Ma seems to be doing pretty well. After supper Hugie & Heine went down to see her. I stretched out on down & read without sleeping!

Thursday, October 24, 1935

Did a big maoxing today. And wrote to Reed about having Daddy's dog pin fixed for me to wear. After lunch Hugie and I picked three woodcock for lunch tomorrow and finally Mike & I walked down to Ma's. She had found some pretty, old curtains which I shall use in our bedrooms. I had a cup of tea and enjoyed being with Ma - she is so calm and brave and clear. Hugie went to club dinner so I ate shredded wheat while Hugie read to me. Later I stretched the last of Eliza's pyjamas and cleaned Dad's ears & brushed

Friday, October 25, 1935

Went riding again at once. Wore new boots I got as Daddy's were too big for me. We rode toward aviation field & had a fine time as our horses were peppy & wanted to go fast. In the afternoon I wrote to Lottie to thank her for her nice note - she had been at Daddy's funeral with the other girls. Ma came & we sat on the back porch in the sun, finishing Ellis's pyjamas & the children came crowding in after school. In the evening Eva Jean stayed while Hugie & I went down to see Ma. Jim Cook was there for a while. Hugie attended to toilet business.

Saturday, October 26, 1935

Right after breakfast I got to work cleaning up the playroom & with the children's help, threw away piles of junk. Coco went out of doors & cleaned up. After lunch I made the beds & finally went down town and did a great lot of shopping, carrying many bundles to Mother's, where Nicks was staying. I was dead tired and talked very pessimistically to Ma - Oh sorry to say. Hugie gave me a cocktail at supper time & I felt better. Hugie went out for a while - & to Ma's - and I had a good time reading "Europe" Robt. B. 11

Sunday, October 27, 1935

Waggon had the day off again so I got the children's breakfast & did a few chores & then spent the rest of the morning looking over & airing the things Ma sent after cleaning her attic! Then we went to Ma's to a very nice dinner. Hagie went to his office to work so I took Ma & the children for a ride - we got Heinie, too & went to Jacksonville & beyond, new places. Ma came here to supper & we initiated her to a fried egg sandwich. We knitted & talked & I helped Hagie pluck 4 more woodcock, while Heinie entertained Ma. O

Monday, October 28, 1935

No riding - Mr. Roberts is away. I did an enormous washing which took until lunch time. In the afternoon I cut the curtains Ma gave me & hemmed them to fit my windows. Had a head ache & back ache. Ma came, but I wasn't cheerful company. Jo & her baby stopped in for a moment & Deborah came with shirts I had ordered for Ellen. I was glad when they all left & I got pestering Miss Obed. In the evening I had to go to Betty Malin's to St. Mary's Guild - we knitted, but I had no pep to inspire them to earn money

Tuesday, October 29, 1935

I gathered all my mendeding about me in the bedroom & waded thru it until lunch time. In the afternoon Ma came and we sat on the down port. I mended an old sweater for Willy & Ma & I npt yarn from another to make him a pair of pants. Poor Willy.
He was busy putting around with pots & pans.
He makes Ma laugh sometimes - she doesn't laugh very much. After supper Hugie went out and I read "Europa" - it's over club book and I want to get caught up. It's very interesting.

Wednesday, October 30, 1935

Did my chores & then went down town to buy things for the club dues ballroom party. Ma donated $1.00 toward it. And I spent all afternoon getting ready for it - making sandwiches, fixing games, like a spider web & apple on string.
Ma came up to see the guests arrive - the Alfes, Jane, Richard, Henry, Peter & 3 Dinglys. They ate supper in Henry's 3rd floor room & had a wonderful time. Willy stayed up for it & ate more than anyone. Later Hugie & I went down to tell Ma all about it.

Thursday, October 31, 1935

I did my chores and then helped Evagene can pears.
After lunch Winifred took me out to Peggie to the Reading Club. They said they were glad I was back & I enjoyed being there. Peggie's maid left just before we got there. We read
"Europe" & I knitted two black sweaters. After supper Ma here to supper & to stay with Mike - Hugie & I went to see the Halloween Parade.
The children had already gone with the winners. It was very long & not so hot.
Lieut. Roberts stop in front of me & said he's leaving town for good. 'Our riding' Supt in to tell Gen & then to me.

Friday, November 1, 1935

21
We went riding with Gen.
Shope - Gen having arranged it last night! He's sort of shy & cute & took us for a lovely long ride. In the afternoon Ma came up & scolded me about every little thing. I guess this is one of her off days.
Martha came later & the scolding ceased. We all knitted & had tea & listened to Martha's tales of her family. Hugie bent over at six-thirty A.M.
& came home at 6:30 P.M.
Very tired & a little tight - I was mad. We went to see "Broadway Melody" - a very good musical movie. I don't think Daddy minded my going.

Saturday, November 2, 1935

Went to church at 7:30 with Ma. Today is All Souls' Day. Then I went home to make fast with her. But left soon after as I had a big washing and had to go down town to take the children's shoes to be soled. In the afternoon Henry had the bridge club - a rainy day & we all enjoyed it very much. After I had the children in bed after supper I went down to see Ma. I don't think she approves of my going to bridge club, movies etc. But you can't sit at home all the time. I don't want to go to parties - but these are different. ^{My} ^{Ma} came to me -

Sunday, November 3, 1935

Slept rather late for a change. Made ice cream for dinner & washed Ellie's thick hair. Henry has to go to Sunday school all month in payment for money & go to movies yesterday! Ma came to dinner. Hughie drove us all & Henry & Beech Creek. Ma & I drove to Oristan while they were in at Aunt Carrie's. Ma would not get out. I wish she would do more. She came here to supper - Henry read to her - she begins to like him better. Jack Hagan Drigley called next door. Ma & I knitted on this side. We all went to bed.

Monday, November 4, 1935

Went riding again - or rather, Serg. Shope gave me a lesson at the Army. He is better than Robert I think. Grace Cook came with some things she's found when cleaning. She had to wait till I had my bath. She was very nice. In the afternoon I helped Hugu pick 2 woodcock, a quail & a grouse. - I mean he helped me! Then Ma came & I made caps for E. & H. out of Daddy's golf stockings! - & knitted - all sorts, I knit. After supper Hugu went out & I mended curtains, added up my bills & wrote to Aunt Mabel who sent me a box of dresses.

Tuesday, November 5, 1935

Did a very big washing and ironed the curtains Ma gave me & hung them. - I like them. Packed over to vote before lunch. After lunch I donned breeches & boots & not much else as it is warm & went hunting with Hugu & Jack in Heath's woods. No luck until on the way home Hugu shot a grouse on the road! Such excitement - Jack jumped out of the car window. But I was relieved not to be a load. Then we hurried to dress to go with Bridget & Jen to the Military Lion to dinner - then party - & saw Lawrence Tibbitt in "Metropolitan" & then bridge at the Walkers, listening to election returns.

Wednesday, November 6, 1935

Just a month since Daddy died - it seems at least six. I did some mending & went down town to pay my bills - not so bad this month. In the afternoon Ma was busy cleaning & did not come. I picked some grouse and dyed my bathing suit dress & slip & pants for Mike and sewed millions of buttons on Henry's shirts.
Will be glad when he gets past the belt-button stage. After supper I scrubbed the children & then Hugie & I went down to see Ma. He did not go very eagerly but she is so happy

Thursday, November 7, 1935

Washed another pile of curtains Ma gave me & a bathrobe of Daddy's for Hugie. In the afternoon I went to Gerie's to the Reading Club but it was mostly talking. "Europa" is hard to read. Then I walked to Evagene's for Mike so Hugie is going to see Kiwanis dinner & I am eating shredded wheat. Gerie came in to try on boots. Read to the children before giving them a good scrubbing.
Finally settled down to write Jamsy in this book (!) from another one.
But Kenzie & Hugie came - O

Friday, November 8, 1935

went riding - this time Herb Becker took us & a wild ride it was. R. Scig & Mine got scared & went home, Mrs. Adams hurt her back, but Glen & Julie too & I galloped lickety split & couldn't stop our horses!
I had Buddy again. After lunch I sat in the sun on the back porch and Ma joined me there. Becky Valentine came to call & we had tea & Becky talked & talked. Ma didn't approve because Becky doesn't wear black for her husband! Then I made a pudding for dinner when John & Martha came to eat goose - perfect. We played bridge afterward as usual. Mr. O was beating

Saturday, November 9, 1935

Did my chores as usual, & then Heinie, Ellen, Tula & I met Ma & all went down town! Bought birthday presents for Susie Shaffer. Tula & Ellen are going to her party - Mary & Minnie with Peter! After lunch I went to college with Hugie to football game! Quite exciting. State beat Villanova 27-13. Then he & Heinie went to Hess party in Lake Haven & Ma had dinner with me.
I started to knit collar for blue knit dress. Ma & I had nice quiet time. Bed at two.
Woke at 3. No Hugie, but soon he came & sat on my bed to tell me about nice party.

Sunday, November 10, 1935

Wagon had day off so I finally got up & got breakfast. Hugie slept late & had to rush to go to church with Am. Legion. Children & Himie went, too. - Mike & I stayed home & attended to odds & ends. Went to Ma's to nice duck dinner. Raining day, no drive. Ellen went to Janie & Henry went home with Hugie to oil refug. etc so Ma & I were left with the two little devils. Mike & Townie Heinie came thru later. I was quite depressed by supposition of only Ma had an intimate friend here - I would not feel so responsible. She came to supper, Heinie too. Talked & knitted - I knitted collar.

simply wonderful - monic.

Monday, November 11, 1935

Hugie off early to hunt, I got later & had to rush to go to church with Ma at 9:30. Made beds, etc and took Heinie & a bunch of children to see parade at 10:30. Then did a big washing before lunch which I hung up afterward. Then Ma came & we knitted. I started a pair of booties for church sale. Heinie came in later & we had tea to cheer up dismal day. Hugie home in bad humor - Jack didn't behave well - he went to Am. Legion dinner. Heinie ate supper here & we went to Am. meeting, then Hugie took us to see C. ... on ... C. table in ...

Tuesday, November 12, 1935

Poor Ma's wedding anniversary.
After I had my chores done I met her & we shopped & then looked at washing machines. In the afternoon Ma came up here and I made new pockets for my coat & other mending & finally started baskets for the church fair. Ma seems to enjoy being sad & is very hard to talk to sometimes.
Every thing about Daddy is suffer now - she forgets all the times she complained about him to me. But I can't remind her of that!
After supper Heimir & I went to bridge club at Joe's - very nice, all of us there at last.
Horrible wet night, ^{but warm}

Wednesday, November 13, 1935

Another rainy day - still no ride. And no washing machine to try as I had expected. So I dawdled around looking for things for rummage sale & then met Ma to go down town.
She came here again in the afternoon & we stitched her aprons.
The weather or Ma or something is getting on my nerves - Divise had nothing to do but paint portraits! - or that Hugi & I alone could travel.
After supper I put the children to bed - Ellen has just as many colds without her tonsils - then Hugi read openheim stories to me.

Thursday, November 14, 1935

A. M. chores much as usual, except that I wrote to Phil & his bride explaining the wedding present of Aunt Nellie's extra forks that I had sent them. In the afternoon I went to Dr. Davis to the Reading class but it was more of a political rally. We read a book "Hell Bent on Election" by James & they all discussed it while I went knitted booties for church sale. We had delicious tea as always at Deborah's. After supper Hugie & I went down to visit Ma. Hugie to attend to her business - I to tell her any gossip I could ^{think} of.

Friday, November 15, 1935

Went riding again at last. Only we stayed in the Armony field. I rode Badly & made him gallop & stop until he was all a-tatter. Hub Beyer got me to try a couple of low jumps! After lunch Hugie took me & a great car load to the rummage sale. I helped to price things & put them in order - not so many or as nice as before. Then I went to Ma's & got a cup of tea. Miss Mary Blanchard came there to call. After supper Hugie went out, Ma came & I printed, with Hugie's things tickets for chances on St. Mary's 2-4-6-8-10.

Saturday, November 16, 1935

Rushed to be ready at nine thirty when Mr. Pillets came to show me how to work the G-E. washer. It was fascinating & so easy that I decided to buy it.
After lunch Heinie & I went to help at the Rummage sale. We made about $107- and I sold 17 chances on our afghan! Heinie, Deborah & I had tea down town afterward & then I went to see Ma till supper time.
In the evening I wrote to Mabel Slaffer about yarn and in my diary - I do wish I could remember to write this each day. Hugie went to office - Heinie ^{came} over.

22 Storm kept hunters from getting here. Pete Slaffer came in & ate supper with us!
Sunday, November 17, 1935

Snow! when I got up to go to early church with Ma.
I had breakfast with her afterward and came home to work my beloved washing machine. Got the rooms ready for our guests. Ma & Heinie came to dinner then Heinie went to bed with a headache & Hugie went to his office & Ma & I were left to the mercies of the children.
Ellen ironed doll clothes to give to poor. I finished booties.
Got Mabel to bed & got supper ready & then Hugie & I patiently waited - reading, knitting & drinking until 9 when John Attie & Jack Banaman called from Lancaster!

Monday, November 18, 1935

Nasty cold morning and I don't feel so well so I decided not to go riding. When the sun came out so I did a great big washing on the machine. At twelve in came Jack & John! We didn't expect them so soon. They brought me a box of candy for me. After lunch they went hunting with Hugo & Niles & I took a walk with Fawcett & Ma in the bright sun. When we came in here I started to knit new sleeves in on old sweater for Niles. Hunters had not much luck. After supper they went down to see Ma. Heine came over & we all went to bed.

Tuesday, November 19, 1935

* P. m.

Hunters off early. Another nice day so I took the screens off downstairs - can't wait for Hugo, - so Evagran could wash the windows. I disowned the winter curtains and hung them in the living room. After lunch Kate Lore came in & the man to put in a plug for the machine, but I left & went down town with Niles & Ma & Fawcett. Ma bought Niles some eggings! We came back here. Finally the hunters came with quite a bag, including an owl! Heine had dinner with us. We sat around talking - the two are a very pair.

Wednesday, November 20, 1935

John & Jack left for home after breakfast & then I started to iron but was interrupted by salesmen & K. Sieg, Red Cross & Margaret Walker. I was weary by lunch time. Then I took a nap until Ma came in & I had to wake up. We knitted & I stitched her aprons & she & Kenny got some knit for me. Ellen went out with the afghan & sold 75¢ worth of chances on it! Then we were invaded by Sevinces. After supper Angie went out to a meeting and I wrote in diary and read and enjoyed a nice quiet house. I am getting old.

Thursday, November 21, 1935

Did some wooling with Mike's help - he loves that machine. Then I ironed the dining room curtains & hung them. While we were eating lunch ~~but~~ Gerie came for a short visit - she brought three chances on afghan. When she left I took "To Winifreds" & sold some at the Reading club. Ellen & Kenny came there to get it after school - they love to go from door to door. I actually read quite a bit of "Europa" - not so many there to talk! After supper (Angie out) I went down to Ma's & finished the sleeves in Mike's sweater.

Friday, November 22, 1935

At 8 o'clock I was ready to go to Winport with Mary Craig in her car & Oline & Pursey & Mrs. Beaver. We separated & did some shopping & met for lunch at the Village Tearoom. We had a lot of fun. Then we did more shopping. I fairly bought out the store. And finally packed all our bundles in the car & had a pleasant ride home. I fully enjoyed the trip. After supper Gen came to have me fix the knitting & Hughie brought Ma before he went to Pete. I showed them all my purchases and the three of us had a ~~very~~ good visit.

Saturday, November 23, 1935

A beautiful day & I got busy with my new pet and soon had a big washing on the back porch. Heciel came over with a lot of things and I did those, too. After lunch I made shades for the bathroom windows of the chimney. I bought yesterday & a cone for the washing machine. Ma came up & did some mending for me. Ellen & Jane went out with the Afghan & sold out a world of tickets! After supper I darned stockings while Hughie read murder stories from the magazine, till we ^{got} were all asleep. ^{quite} cool.

Sunday, November 24, 1935

Wagon had day off so I did not go to church but gave the children their breakfast instead and later did a big washing as the sun is so nice & bright. We went to Ma's to dinner and Hughie went to his office while I took Ma & the children for a nice ride. We went back to her house but the children were contentless & Tawson was a nuisance so we left. Ma came up later to supper after which we read the Sunday papers. I have started to reprint some box of Dad's that I made one to give to Bean for Christmas! Bed early. O.

Monday, November 25, 1935

At 8:15 I got up & discovered Wagon was not here so I frantically got the children some breakfast & sent them to school. Hughie found out that ~~Wagon~~^{Julius} couldn't ~~come~~ either & went to work without breakfast! Date mine while dressing to go riding & left Mike with Jo while we took one of the nicest rides yet. I got Buddy from Sis Curtin by tossing corn. I got some lunch with children's help. After I had lunch made Mike & I went down to ~~town~~ Ma & Tawson! Made tea for Ma's for Mrs. & Mrs. Cook. After supper went to St. M. Child at Mrs. Martin's - we started ~~after~~ with ^{special} colors

Tuesday, November 26, 1935

Wagon back & all serene.
I did a little washing and a great deal of ironing and was quite tired so that after lunch I took a little rest until Mike woke me by turning on radio at full tilt. Then he & I went down to Ma's. There I looked over snapshots & negatives to find those like Daddy's year book. Strange - Daddy had put a picture of himself on last page as if in farewell.
Heipie took Heime to American Legion dinner down. Ma came here to have supper with me. Then I made two bags for the church sale. Ma left at 10, but I turned on radio & worked till

Wednesday, November 27, 1935

Mike wet his bed last night (!) so I had to do more washing & found a lot more to use up my odds. Also had more ironing to do and a sheet to patch. In the afternoon I went to Grace's & the Reading club. She had the maid pass things & managed tea much better than she did last summer - oh so learning.
But how she misses me long for Aunt Louise. When I got home Henry was on his bed with an earache and I had quite a time with him till he finally got to sleep at 8:30. Wrote in diary. Then helped Heipie pleck & more till bedtime.

Thursday, November 28, 1935

Up at six - rain - much argument between Heenie, Huggie & me as to who would rent Bo in Lewis town - Heenie & I & the three children finally did. Bo has to go back tonight - sorrow. He brought my pin - made of Dad's dog stick pin - it's lonely. Ate breakfast & then I made the children take naps. I started to make cover for washing machine as I didn't have enough stuff the other day. Heenie & all of us ate turkey dinner at Ma's. Stayed there all afternoon at mercy of children. Heenie behaved badly when I gave one of his turkey favors to Bo - Ellen gave him nicely. Got them to bed at last & finished cover to my satisfaction. Took Bo to 12 o'clock train in 3rd grade - Huggie & I.

Friday, November 29, 1935

Slept late & had to leave my boots at the Armory! But, oh, we had a wonderful ride. Gen. Julia Koll, Sis Curtis & I galloping along ahead of the others. I just love it. I had Buddy again - I guess he's mine now. Had first time for my bath before lunch. In the afternoon Ma came & we knitted. Heenie & Huggie went to Lina Mingle's wedding in Lock Haven. Ellen rode to the movies with Evagene. I got supper for the children & later for myself - Ma came back with dessert for me! I made seven signs for the Bazaar. Then I plucked 2 quail & one grouse. H. & H. home.

Saturday, November 30, 1935

Washed & did my usual chores in the morning.
In the afternoon Ma
came with her knitting Hugie came home with two grouse - a nice female.
Heinie came over with her work & we had a couple of cups of tea. Lots of children buzzing around.
Hugie has consented to borrow my $5,000 that Daddy left me & brought me a note to that effect, paying me 4%.
Feel very rich. After supper I put the children to bed & then Hugie took me to the college to see my dear Ronald Columan in "Man Who Broke the Bank at Monte Carlo".
Jack & George had rodeo with us.

Sunday, December 1, 1935

Went to early church with Ma & then to her house for breakfast. Did a big washing. Ma went to Uncle Foe for dinner, but Heinie came here with us. Afterward I read the children their Sunday Bible story and then mended a great pile of hunting gloves for Hugie.
Pussy came in & later she & Heinie went for a walk. Ma came to supper and afterward Hugie started packing to go to Uncle Dick's camp.
Our old Helminator has broken down so we may as well get a new refuger. Walked home with Ma later. God keep Hugie safe.

Monday, December 2, 1935

We got up early & I attended to the fire & rushed down to witness Brooks at a refrigerator before going horseback riding! It was icy & we didn't have much fun - but I had Buddy doing just what I wanted him to do & felt very proud of my horsemanship. In the afternoon Ma came trudging up the hill. She helped me with my mending and I helped her with her knitting. I had supper with Heine & then went to a meeting at Mrs. Richards' about the Bazaar. The "ladies" were very amusing in their prejudices. Heine helped me pluck 2 grouse - the last - when I got home.

Tuesday, December 3, 1935

We all woke up at 7:45 and in a short time I had the fire going nicely & everything O.K. I did some washing & figured my accounts & then Ma & I went down town to pay my bills - I cashed $272 & felt very rich until I paid for the washing machine. In the afternoon I did my ironing in the living room while Ma sat there with her knitting. I told her I was tired of hearing her criticize the children. Just before supper Hagie came unexpectedly home - Aunt Dorothy sick & the deer camp broke up. Heine came to supper & then she & I went to bridge club at Perry's. Gen & I won

Wednesday, December 4, 1935

Slept a little as I don't have to be furnace man. Did some wooling & ironed dress for doll Ellen is giving to Bazaar. Went to ~~Dobson's~~ Mantles to the Reading club where we pegged away resolutely at Europe.
When I got home I found Mr. Witmer putting in the new Frigidaire which just arrived. Helped Wagran clean it etc & then washed Mike to bed & was ready when Nucle F.
& Grace & Ma came to dinner to eat the last of the goose. They were delicious. Nucle F. had second.
Whittied & visited to Grace & Ma ~~about~~ ^{was} ~~to enjoy it.~~

Thursday, December 5, 1935

As soon as the beds were I started making candy.
Mr. Witmer came to finish connecting the beautiful new refrigerator. At lunch time I was still trying to make the candy get 'hard'. After lunch Nucie took me to the Parish House with my things for the Bazaar. I worked there selling aprons & chances on the Afghan until I had $15 on it. Then Ellen pulled a number from a bag & Miss Luna Cook won it. I had tea there with some of the Reading club girls who kindly came to make over $100 at the Bazaar. After supper Nucie went to Nucle Dick's camp again. I sketched Nucle's card

Betsy Martin + a friend stop in after lunch. Nice & see her.

Friday, December 6, 1935

We decided not to ride until the weather, but today is sunny & I longed to be out.

But I did a big washing instead. In the afternoon I worked on the Christmas card. Ma was here. Kids was outdoors but somehow there seemed to be lots of confusion and I seemed to make the card worse instead of better. And I got in a bad humor. I bathed kids & left every thing close to Evagran & went to Ma's to a baked bean supper. I worked on Martha's cover down there. Miss Cook came in with her sewing. Nice evening worked children's hair too.

Saturday, December 7, 1935

Evagran has day off. So I fixed the fire & got the children's breakfast, etc.
& then gave Jack a bath!
Henry & Ellen went down town with me & we bought their gifts at the 5 & 10. They were very cute making their selections - Henry got something for me & I'm consumed with curiosity about it. Then I cooked lunch.
Heinie was here & helped.
Then I cut Henry's & Kate's hair. Got to work doing Ann's card over. Ma came & went over to Heinie's where we had tea later. Wrote to Dad & ordered some things.
Had supper at Heinie's with Pussy. It's icy out but they got home safely at nine. Glad.

Sunday, December 8, 1935

Went to church at 8 on Hugs sled as the streets were sheets of ice! But I had a time getting home. Made the beds, etc.

Mae called up that Ruth was sick & could Eva Jean cook dinner, so Hugsie brought it all up here before he rode out to church. Church in the chapel as the furnace is broken - just another little thing for us to help pay for. We had a fine dinner. I spent most of the afternoon making a belt of braids for Mae's sweater.

We went home to Focwren but came back later to supper. Heinie out. I thought Hugsie & I were going to be nice & alone, but we can't leave Mae alone. ^{Hugsie putting} damn things ^{on}

Monday, December 9, 1935

We went riding again as it's so much warmer. And so much muddier! We were covered with mud when we got back, but we had had fun. Buddy nips the other horses & then they kick him! More fun! After lunch I decided to do the big wash. I neglected this morning. Mae came before I was there and helped me hang them up - only, she's made a sloppy hangar! Then we quilted. At supper time I gave Hugsie a piece of my mind about his going out hunting any more - he gets too tired. Then I went to a sup. meeting. He finally took screens off.

Tuesday, December 10, 1935

Changed my mind a dozen times about how to spend the morning & finally, having accomplished nothing, went down town with Ma & got more things for the children. In the afternoon I cut out a blouse for Ellen & stitches it and did a little sewing for Ma while she did my mending. Then I did my ironing. By the time I put Luke to bed I was tired.

After supper I knitted & Hugie raved on about hunting & going hunting but finally calmed down & read the murder story to me that he started weeks ago. He, ya, Jordan & I wrote to his

Wednesday, December 11, 1935

I did some mending & went down town alone as there is deep sleazy snow & Ma couldn't go. I wanted to buy her presents anyway & never have a chance. In the afternoon the Reading Club came here - ten of them. Luke sat with us & was very good & cute. We had egg - & ~~but~~ sandwiches & cup cakes. He took "Europa" drag on, alternately dull & disgusting. After giving Henry & Ellen their semi-weekly scrubs I went down to Ma's - Jim was there - & Hugie joined me there later. Worked on "Mutt"

*! Thursday, December 12, 1935

Slept late and worried about my health, but when I did get up I did a big wooling it's easy with the machine. In the afternoon Ma came & stayed with Tinkles while Martha & I went to the Presbyterian Bazaar. We spent our money promptly & then came home to have tea. I started a pair of bed sox for Heinie. After supper Hugie again went off to Nucle Dick's house, not camp - this time but he will turn tomorrow & then come back. Heinie came over & we talked. I lazily read magazine stories & went to bed early. Tinkles kindly wet his bed.

Bed at once after hilarious evening
Friday, December 13, 1935

Slept late again and had to wash again, thanks to Tinkles. Mother, bless her heart, came trudging up the hill in the eternal drizzle we seem to be having. Martha had sent her her bed sox & they were so pretty I ripped mine & started again with another yarn that I had found. I would liked to have gone on with them but had to stop when I heard Heinie come in. Hugie came later bringing Mary Eschweiler for a visit to Heinie. She is as cute & enthusiastic as ever. After supper Hugie & I went to Shoppers to bridge. So I decided to go for many years 65 f

Saturday, December 14, 1935

Heinie, Mary, Ma & I were to have gone to the college for the day but it is raining so we decided not to go - Doat & Talles to them & later we went down town - Doat & at Kuch's to measure silver drawer to make box to fit it. In the afternoon Ma came up here & Mary & Heinie came over & we skittled & had tea. I discovered that Heinie was expecting us to dinner! I had mine all ordered - but we went over & had a fine time. Later Cat, Pete & Jo & Bill & R. Sieg came & we played games & had highballs & I finished the last socks for Do & began washing them & home - I went - at one went to church in the cold chapel at 8 with Ma & then to her house to break-fast. Hugie still asleep when I got home & the children rice & quib - 5¢ each! Nothing to do. Too rainy to wash - so I went to Heinie's with my sewing. She & Mary came to dinner after which I stayed for half an hour & then tried to make a postal of Hugie - but it was no good & soon got dark. Had such a time trying to decide whether to go to Bear Creek with Heinie & Hugie to take M. home that I finally cried, went with them, but got out & walked home. Ma was here with children - Peter & read.

Monday, December 16, 1935

Got up resolved not to go horseback riding & plunging into an enormous washing which took all morning. In the afternoon he came up & did some mending for me while I worked on the blouse for Ellen, making button holes. Mike played with the cute little buttons & of course lost one. I never knew a child to get into so much as he does. In the evening Hugie read to me stories of game, etc and we discussed what to give the children - every thing they want is so expensive & lasts such a little while.

Tuesday, December 17, 1935

As soon as I got the beds made & the meals ordered I sat down with the two pictures I've done of Hugie & made a third which turned out much to my satisfaction. In the afternoon I had to do my ironing. Ma was making cookies & did not come, but Martha came & when I'd finished ironing we had tea & I worked on Heenie's bedsock. In the evening I put the children to bed & then Heenie stayed with them while Hugie & I went down to call on Ma. If my mother's table comes - I shall be glad to see her.

Wednesday, December 18, 1935

Did a few chores & then went to Ma's to measure her pillow & found her busy making cookies so I went down town alone & did some shopping - how fast the money goes - I thought I had a lot but it's getting very low. In the afternoon Ma came up & I worked on Heini's box. Heini & Augie went to look Haven & the deer butchering. I had supper alone & lots of fun with Mary & Ellen who were in fine spirits. Then I went to Grace's to Bridge club. Cat & I beat Grace & Martha. Took Augie's pills & alone.

Thursday, December 19, 1935

Did a big washing, which took all morning as I feel sick & peevish & too much alone. Came 'sp last night. After lunch I ironed a dress for Ellen's play tomorrow & a few other things & then went to Olive's & Reading Class. We read "The Husband band of Mary" by Eliz. Went a perfectly beautiful story about Joseph which brought a lump to my throat. Augie at the club so I was "head" & off. I made a pillow cover for Ma & a quilt. Tug bag for Evagran - Heini here & Augie came home early.

Friday, December 20, 1935

Right after breakfast I started tying up the out-of-town presents - packing them to ship - & finally Ellen hauled them down to the P.O. with me. In the afternoon I went to Ellen's class room to see her play "Mrs Cratchett" in the "Krus Carol" - she did very well. Ma went to see Henry's performance & then we met & she came home with me while I tied up the rest of my Krus presents. They look so gay & pretty. In the evening Hugie & I addressed the Krus cards & had as much trouble as usual over the shipping labels.

Saturday, December 21, 1935

Up early & done with my washing early. Ma, Henry & all three children went down town with me. I helped them with their purchases & spent more money myself.
In the afternoon I had nothing more important to do than take a nap!
Henry kept nurse for me & then she & he & I went down to Ma's for a cup of tea & a nice little visit. After supper when Henry & Ellen were finally in bed Hugie & I made a box for spoons etc for Uncle F.
& "Aunt Grace" - a very nice present. I call it the "Aunt Grace" box.

Sunday, December 22, 1935

Went to early church in the bitter cold, Ma not there. Came home to make toast for the children as Wagon had off. Did some washing. We went to Ma's to dinner & left immediately after to go to the ridge to get ground pine & the tree. Ellen, Henry Jane & Jack the dog went with us & we had a fine time. I got out at the church in my sickening clothes (!) & helped decorate. Let's getting home to get the children's supper. Ma came to supper. She is most decided on her views on raising. Hegie would like me to go to Mass dance with him. I can't broach subject.

Monday, December 23, 1935

Slept rather late as I actually have nothing much on my mind. I did some washing & between changes tidied up a few odds & ends. In the afternoon Ma came trudging up in the snow to stay here while I went to clean brasses at the church. When I got back Stew Conyell dropped in & Martha came to tea & Mike gave her his gift. I made a couple of roscettes of ground pine. After supper Hegie went out, Hennie came in, wrote in this diary & fixed a "pic" of gifts for the table on Christmas. Bed.

Tuesday, December 24, 1935

Hugie & I got up at 6:30 & went to Lewis town to meet Bo. We did some shopping there, too - a cute desk for Ellen & truck for Mike & packed them all in with Bo. At Ma's we had tea & coffee while Bo breakfasted. Came home to order meals & make beds & help Heinnie wash in the washer. After lunch I ironed. Pete came in for a while. Then I washed Jack & went to the church to help Mrs. Baugh arrange the poinsettias on the altar. Beautiful. Later Hugie took the children & me around town to see the lights. After supper H. & E. trimmed the tree. Ellen called down to be sure I was in bed for Santa Claus: "Merry Xmas!" Bo & Ma were late. I trimmed house.

Wednesday, December 25, 1935

Mid night service beautiful as usual - good short sermon by Mr. Seidlitz. Then sound sleep until children came with their stockings at 7:20. We got dressed later & went down to see all the lovely presents downstairs. Ma & Bo came later with lots more presents. Brickley & Gen came for egg noggs & later Aunt T. & Grace & the Shoffers & Kate. Ma & Bo had dinner with us Heinnie too of course, - delicious turkey, mince pie from Gene Mc Gregor. Much later Hugie & I & the kids called on the Seigs & Shoffers. Very late getting supper - Heinnie sarcastic & I just couldn't help crying - then Hugie wouldn't go to dance with me as I had said he should. He was

Thursday, December 26, 1935

Packed up Henry's jacket & trousers for larger size and went down town with Ma & Bo & Towser - Bo is a scream with Towser. In the afternoon I went to the Reading Club at Cat's & started to put initials on Hugie's hankies. We all had a fine time comparing Christmas cards. They all liked my cards but not as much as other years I don't believe. I am feeling much better than I did last night - too bad about last night - but skin can't hit the bull's eye. Bo & Ma came up for a while after dinner. Ma is more cheerful now that Bo is here.

Friday, December 27, 1935

Did a few chores & then went with Hugie & Henry to Tyrona to meet Hugie's old roommate Homer Collins. He is very nice, jolly & easy to talk to. Got back in time for lunch. He & Hugie talked a lot of old times, so I sneaked upstairs & took a nap. Later Ruth & I went down to see Ma. Bo was out skating. After supper Hugie took Heenie, Cat, Homer & me to John Curtis for a drink & then on to the Sing's party which was bigger than expected but not bad. I drank whiskey & then gin & lived thru it. Played bingo & other

Friday, December 27, 1935

Did a large washing. Took a little nap after lunch until Ma & Bo came but they did not stay long. I wrote about my diary which was not right when it came. I don't believe I'm supposed to keep a diary. I have such a time getting it & such a time writing in it when I do get it! Put some of the present away & tried to tidy up this overcrowded little room. Ma & Bo came to supper - reunion, which Bo seemed to enjoy. Heinie came over later. Pete dropped in. I made initials, peacefully. Hugie eager to see his friend who is coming tomorrow.

Sunday, December 29, 1935

Woke up until 8:30! And I intended to go to early church! So I went early before dawn to fix the things. Not many in church & choir terrible. Found Homer feeling fine when I got back. I cooked dinner - Reunion - so Bo left at 12 to eat turkey at home. Hugie took us all, Heinie included, to Lock Haven to show Homer the pebbles. Not very exciting there, lots of snow. Ma & Bo came to supper. Jo & Pete & Mrs. Suddow came in later - much confusion. Billions of dishes in kitchen went with Hugie to take Bo & Homer to Zyrone train at 12 - nice talk with Bo.

Monday, December 30, 1935

Left late & did a big washing - the hardest part being to hang them out in the freezing air. In the afternoon I collected a great pile of mending - sheets to patch, socks & darn patterns to sew on & Ma came & helped me. Keenie came in later & we had tea. I expected Ma to be sad at Bob's absence, but no, indeed! I believe she was dreading this - feels better that it's over. After supper I went to Keenie's to a meeting of St. Mary's Guild. We had invited lots of new girls to join but not one came!! It was awfully funny & we had a very nice time. But!

Tuesday, December 31, 1935

Was going to iron but first I washed my new towels & iron them & washed a lot of other things & the next thing was lunch time. So I dined after lunch. Ev. took Kilee with her & Keenie & I took a walk around the town & stopped to see a Swedish family pupil of her - interesting. We ended up at Ma's - she gave us a tea party. After supper - which consisted of lobsters sent by Paisley!! - Kilee was restless, undecided whether to go to New Year's dance. I managed to write to Aunt M. & Lily B. Finally we both went to bed.

Christmas gifts received.

Good-bye, 1935. I am glad you are over!
You brought us lots of sickness & unhappiness. altho, I don't forget pleasant summer days. I am thankful Hogie's pneumonia was no worse than it was, but always I shall remember 1935 as the sad year that took my lovable old Daddy away. He is much better off as he is & I do not wish him back but it is hard to see poor sad, black-draped Mother so lonely without him.
May 1936 be kinder to us all - all over the world.
